"Aw 'right, I'll jump the next train. That one was going too fast," decides John Borden.

James McCombs should learn not to sit in front of the fan.

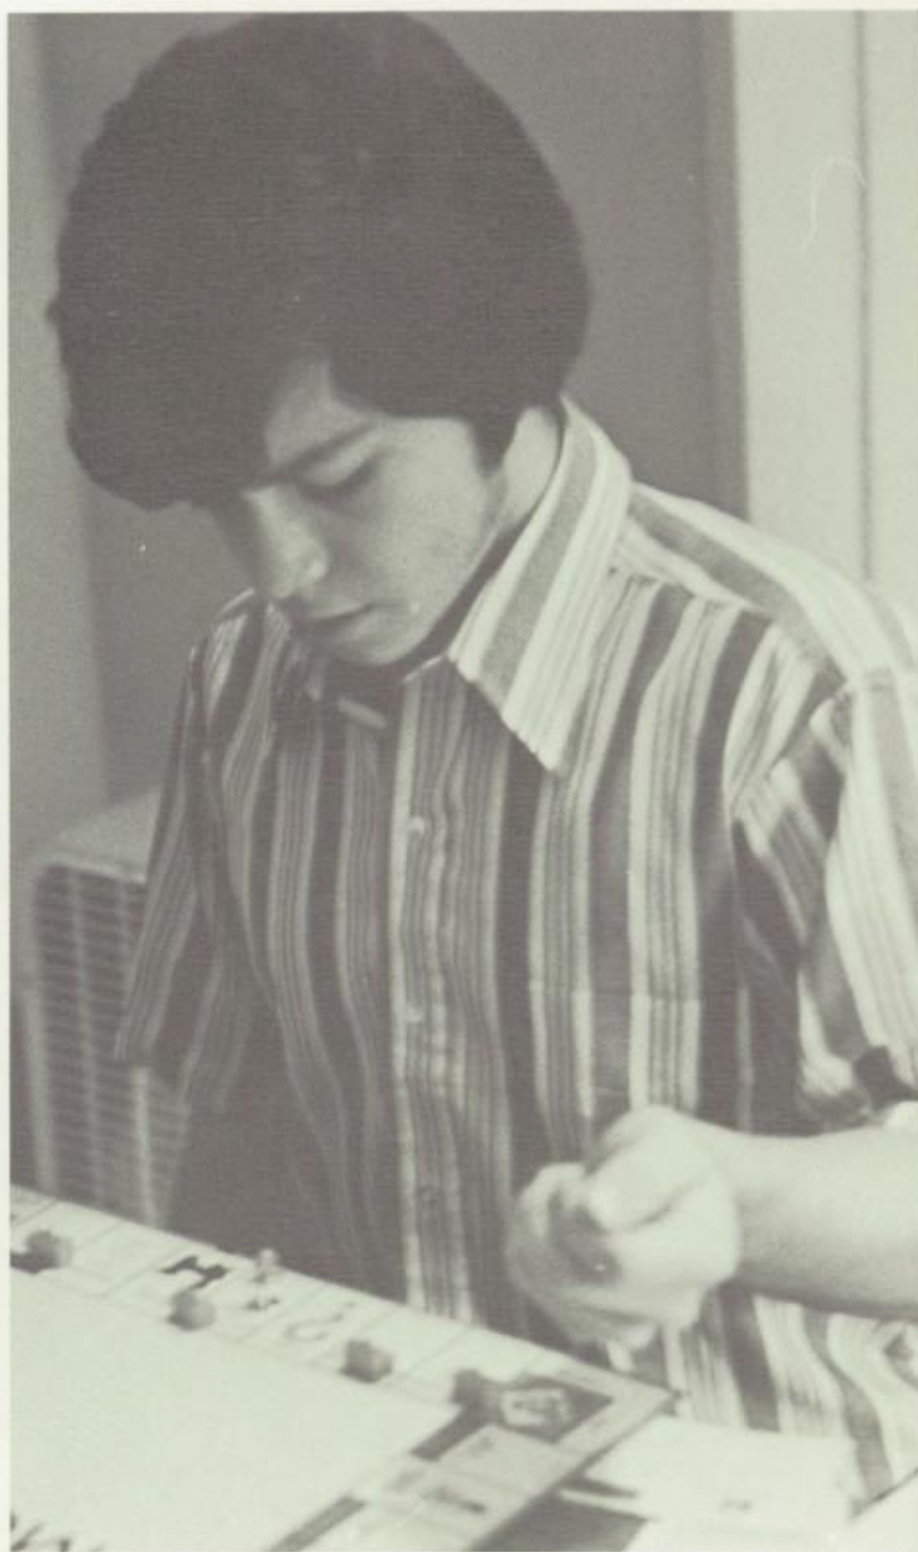

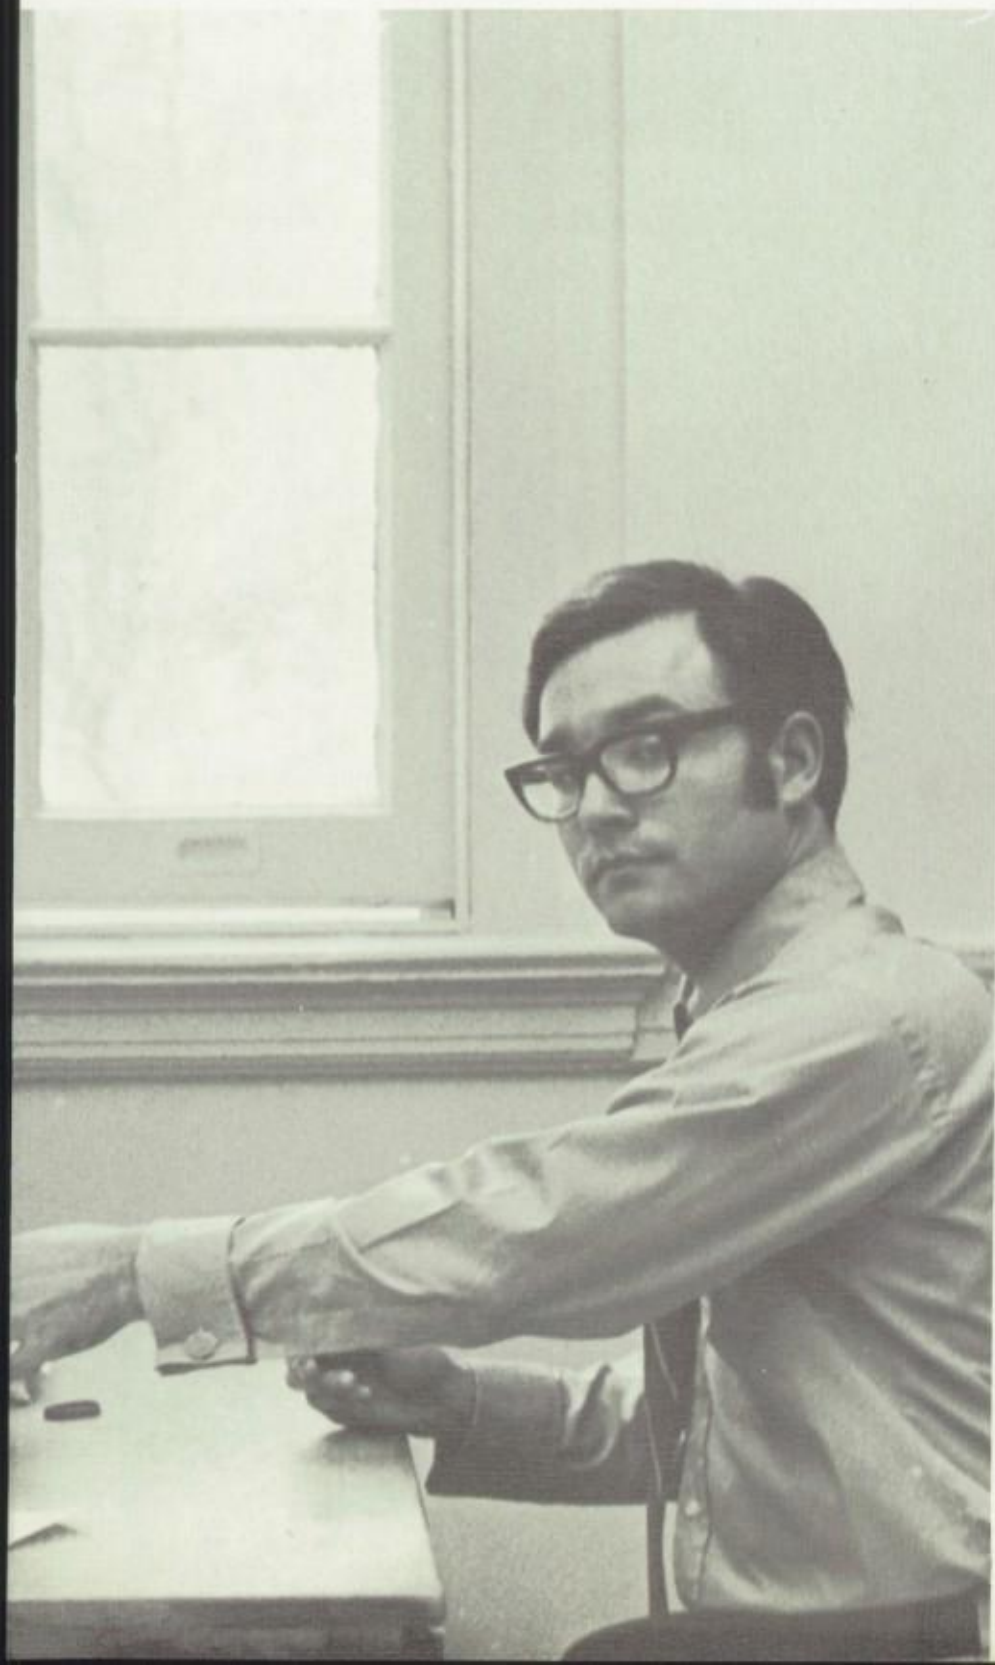

"O.K. babes, it's like this . . .," explains Jim Hopkins as Spencer Morten takes note.

Taylor Frazier and John Barron get their before dinner grins in the senior lounge.

Jerrauld Jones grubs for points as Mr. Garmey looks downright indignant.

How about a game of Monotony with Jim Ward?

Bishop fan, Jim Baxter, seems amazed at the progression of the Collegiate-V.E.S. game.

"Big Brother is watching."

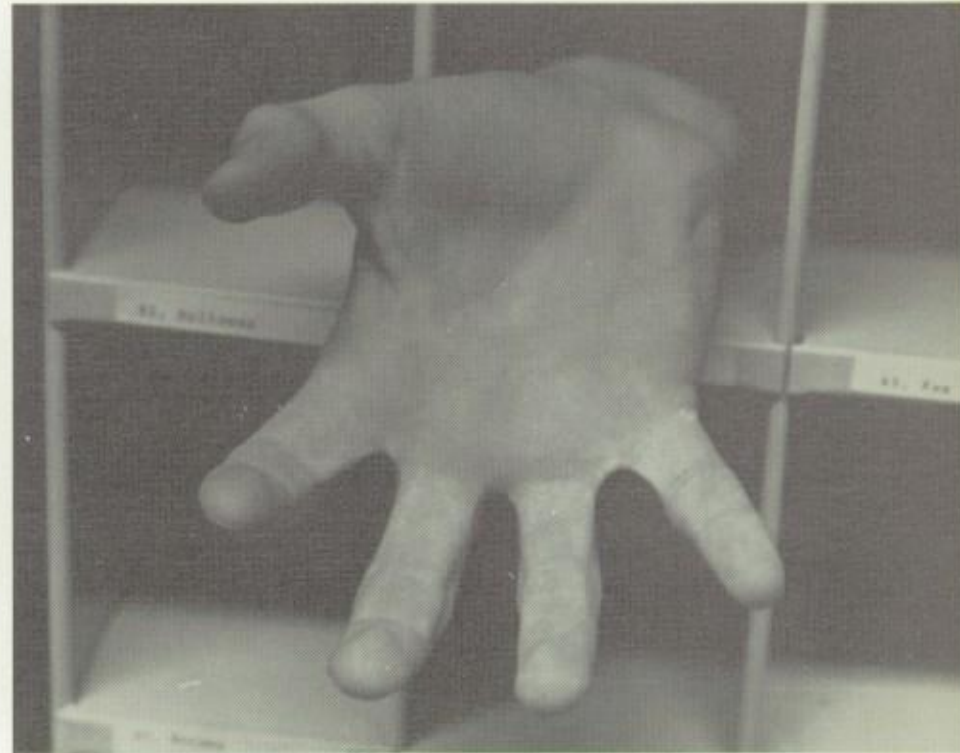

"It's a great buy!
With a new clutch

it should run just fine," decides Jim McNider confidently.

John Harman ... a prospect for cancer research.

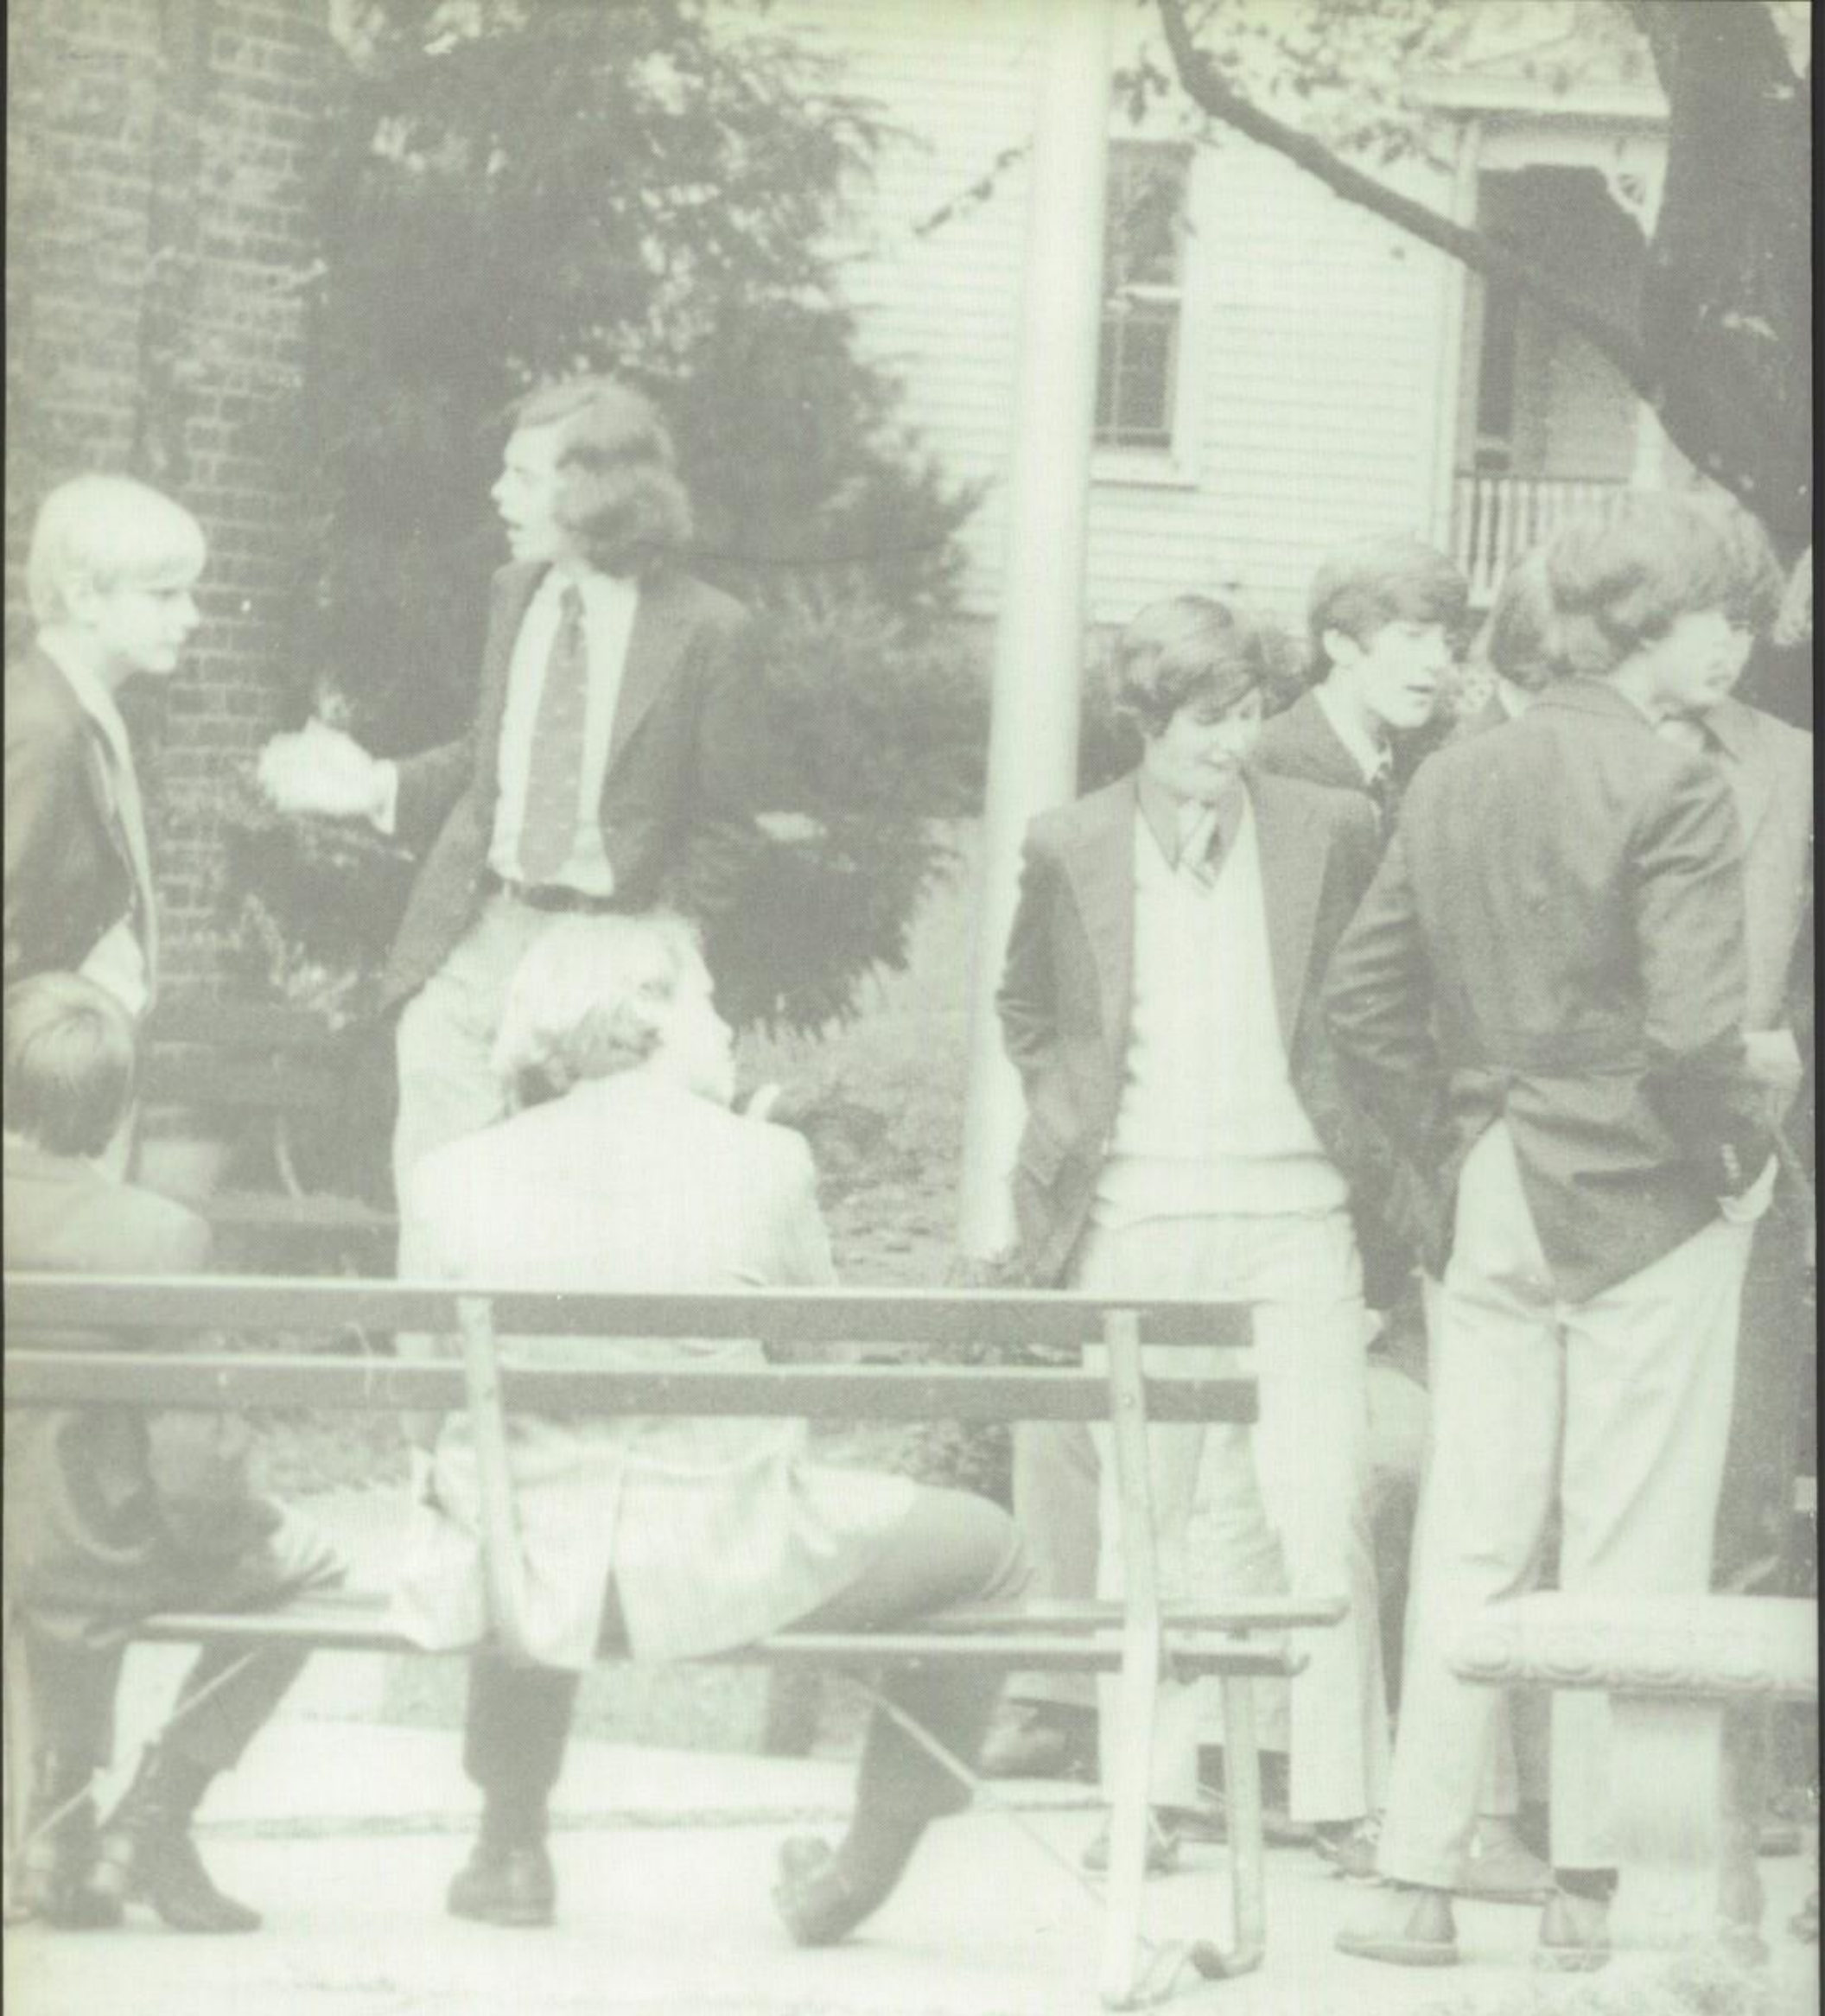

The no mail syndrome.

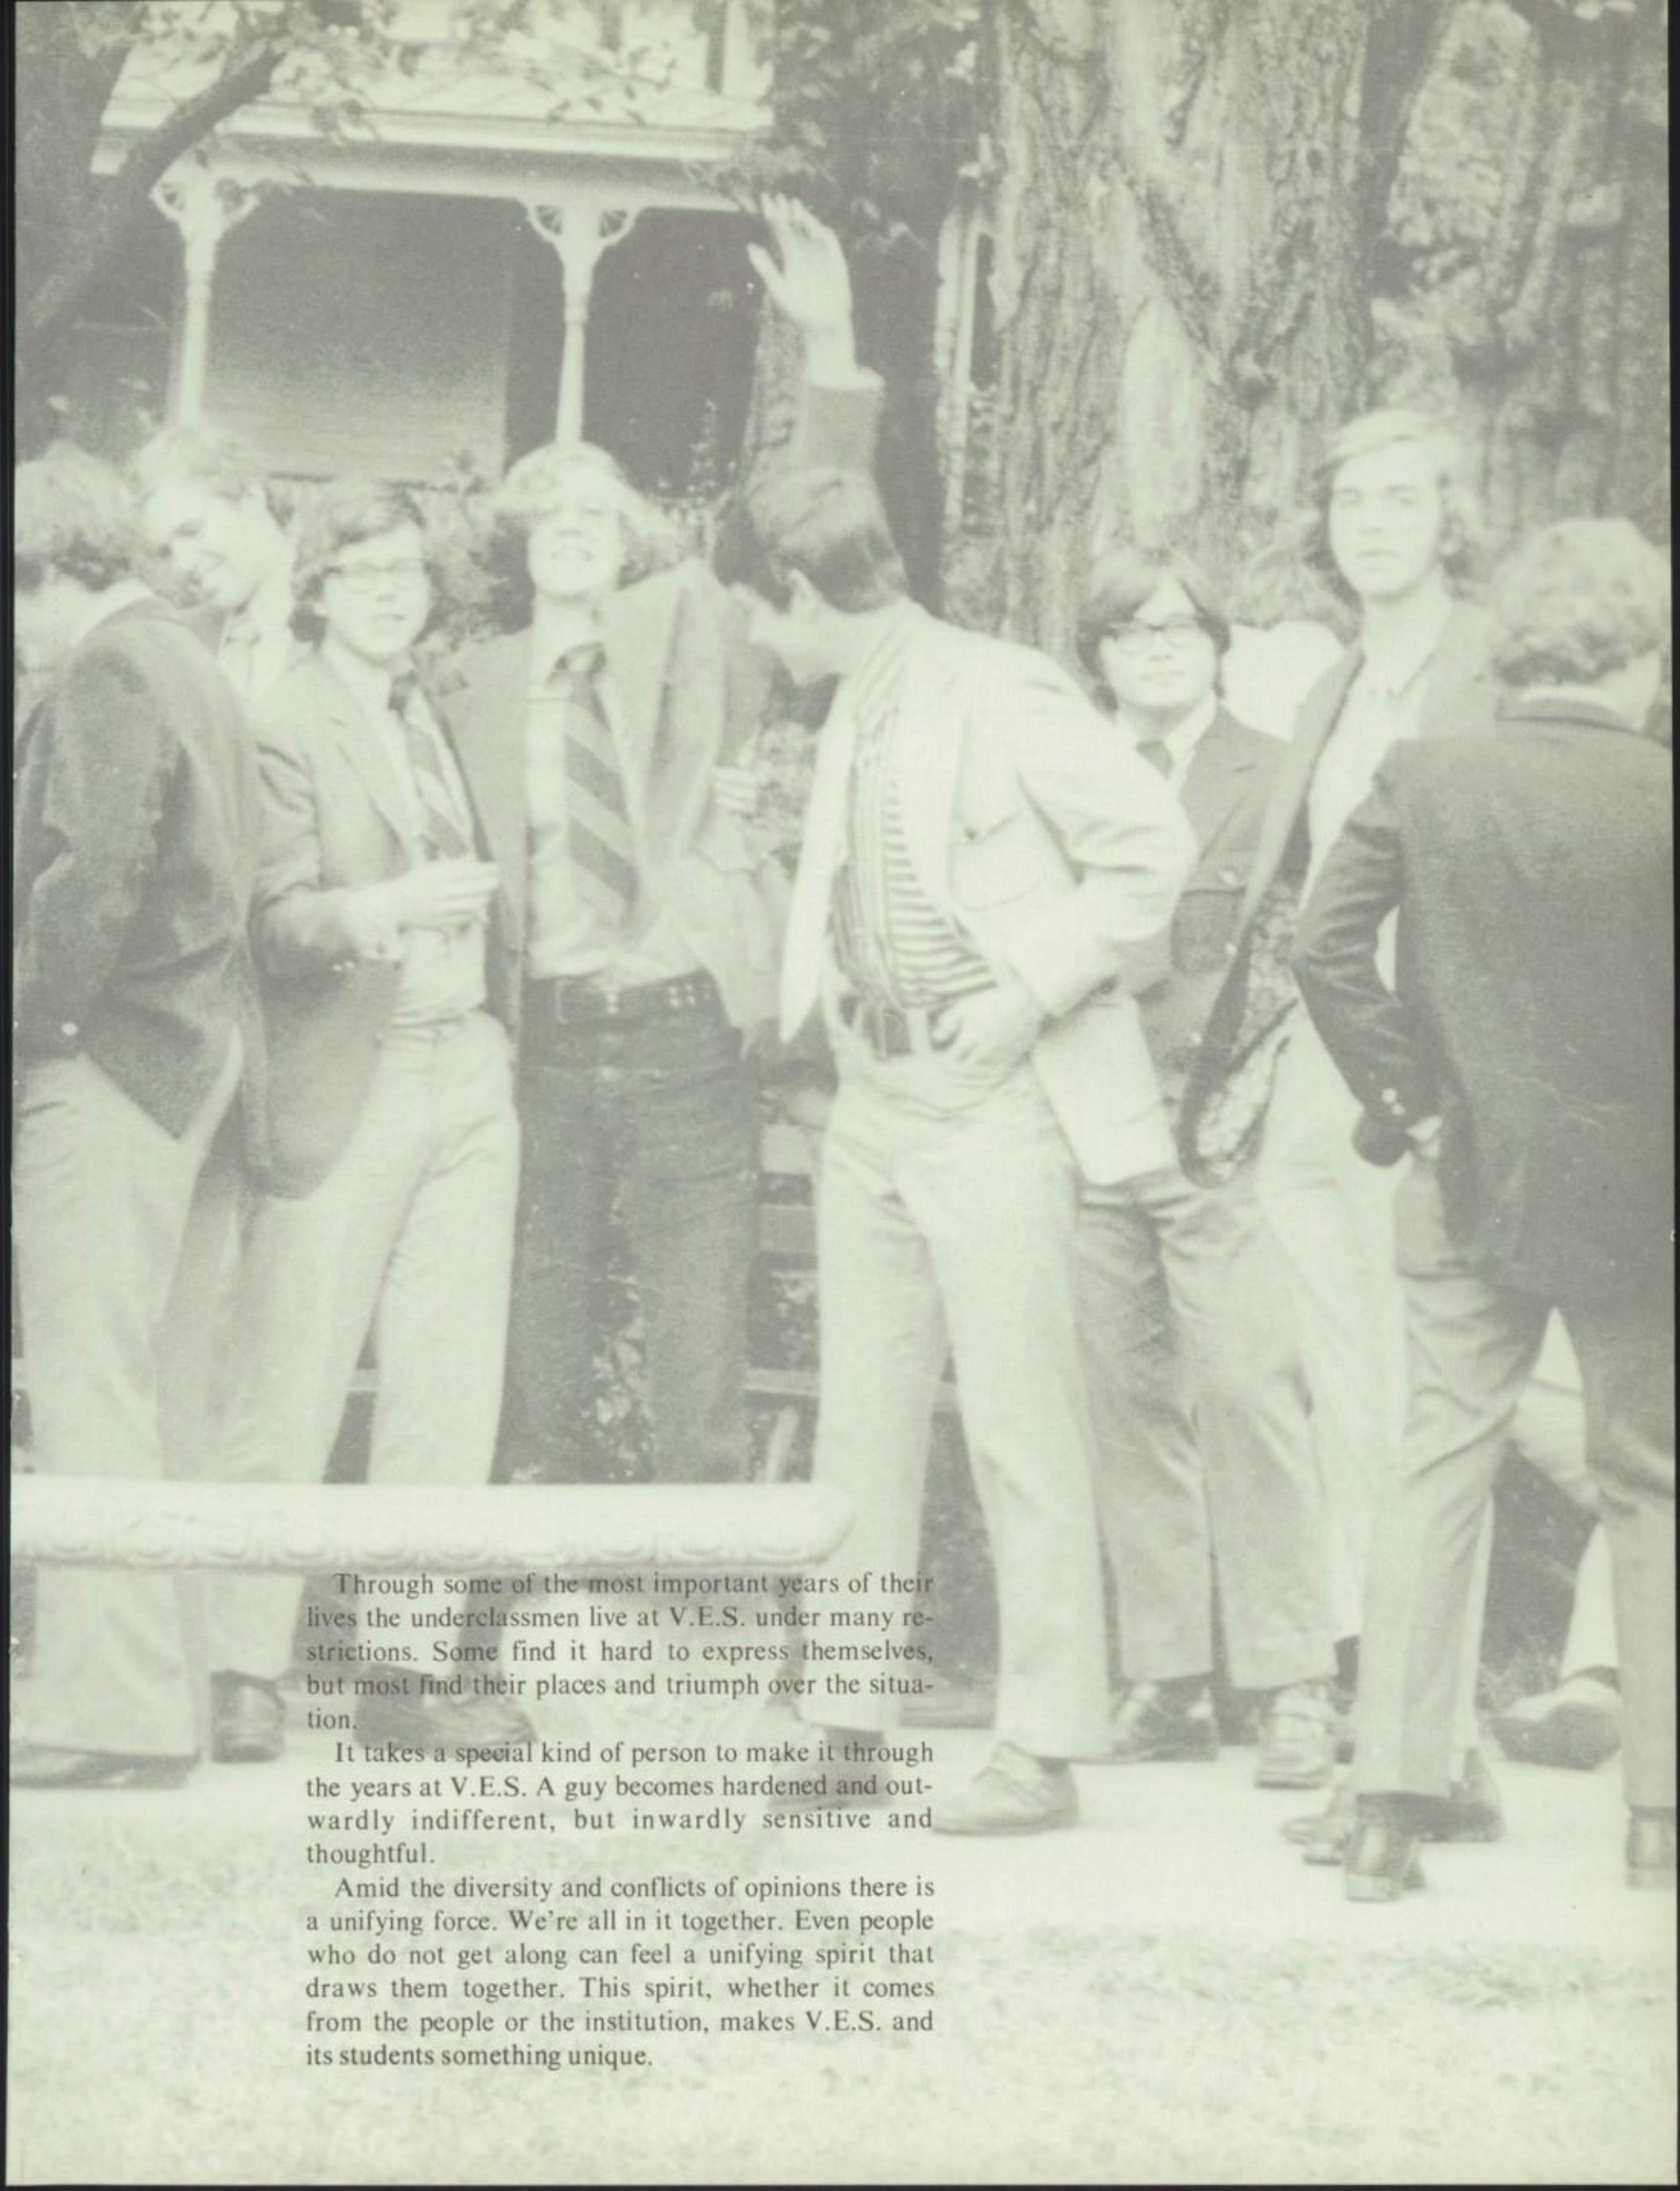

A devoted Rocco DiSanto.
"We love you, Mr. Hoffman."

Arlo Motsinger demonstrates that freaks just don't know when to stop blowing their minds.

Underclassmen

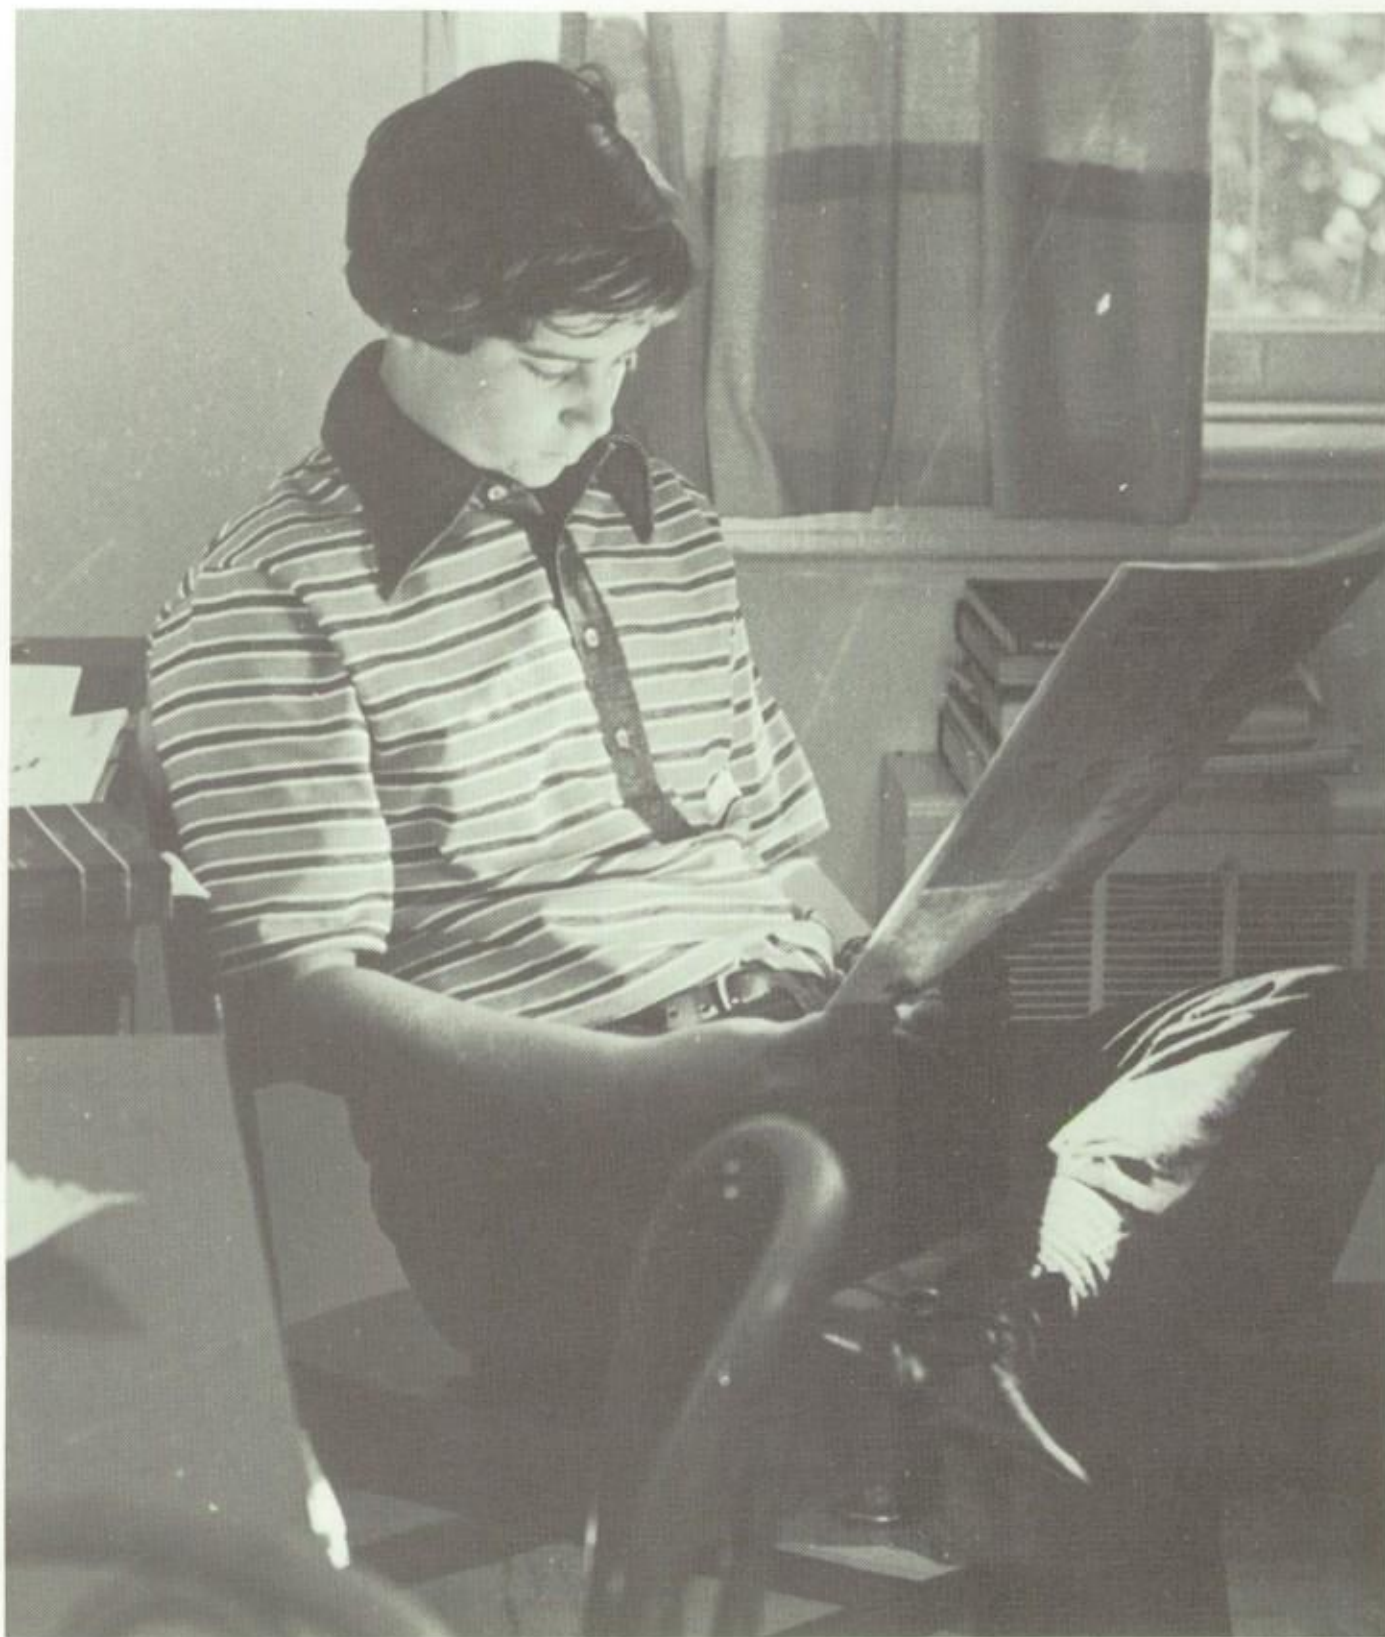

Through some of the most important years of their lives the underclassmen live at V.E.S. under many restrictions. Some find it hard to express themselves, but most find their places and triumph over the situation.

It takes a special kind of person to make it through the years at V.E.S. A guy becomes hardened and outwardly indifferent, but inwardly sensitive and thoughtful.

Amid the diversity and conflicts of opinions there is a unifying force. We're all in it together. Even people who do not get along can feel a unifying spirit that draws them together. This spirit, whether it comes from the people or the institution, makes V.E.S. and its students something unique.

Fall Athletics

Fall athletics underwent some changes this year with a good many new coaches entering the scene. The over-all picture was success and most programs ended with winning seasons.

The Varsity football team under new coaches Mike Thornton and B.B. Hamaker had a hard time getting its raw potential channeled into the battering ram that the team could have been.

The lower field did see victories, however, in the forms of J.V. and Freshmen winning seasons. Coaches Max Meador and John Willey were ready with battle strategies, and the J.V.'s were prepared to do the rest to make the season successful.

The Freshmen led by coaches Clarke Crenshaw and Tom Moore did what has been previously considered impossible. An undefeated season was quite a surprise, and a special congratulations should be extended to the Freshmen and their coaches for their superb season.

The Cross Country team, with Coaches Fred Hoffman and Roger Young, came through with big wins over some of the school's major rivals. Wins over Episcopal and Randolph-Macon added spice to the fall athletic program.

Varsity Football

Spencer Cash gets taped by Reed Leverton as Johnson Davis, Rocco DiSanto, and Gary Homes grimace at the field action.

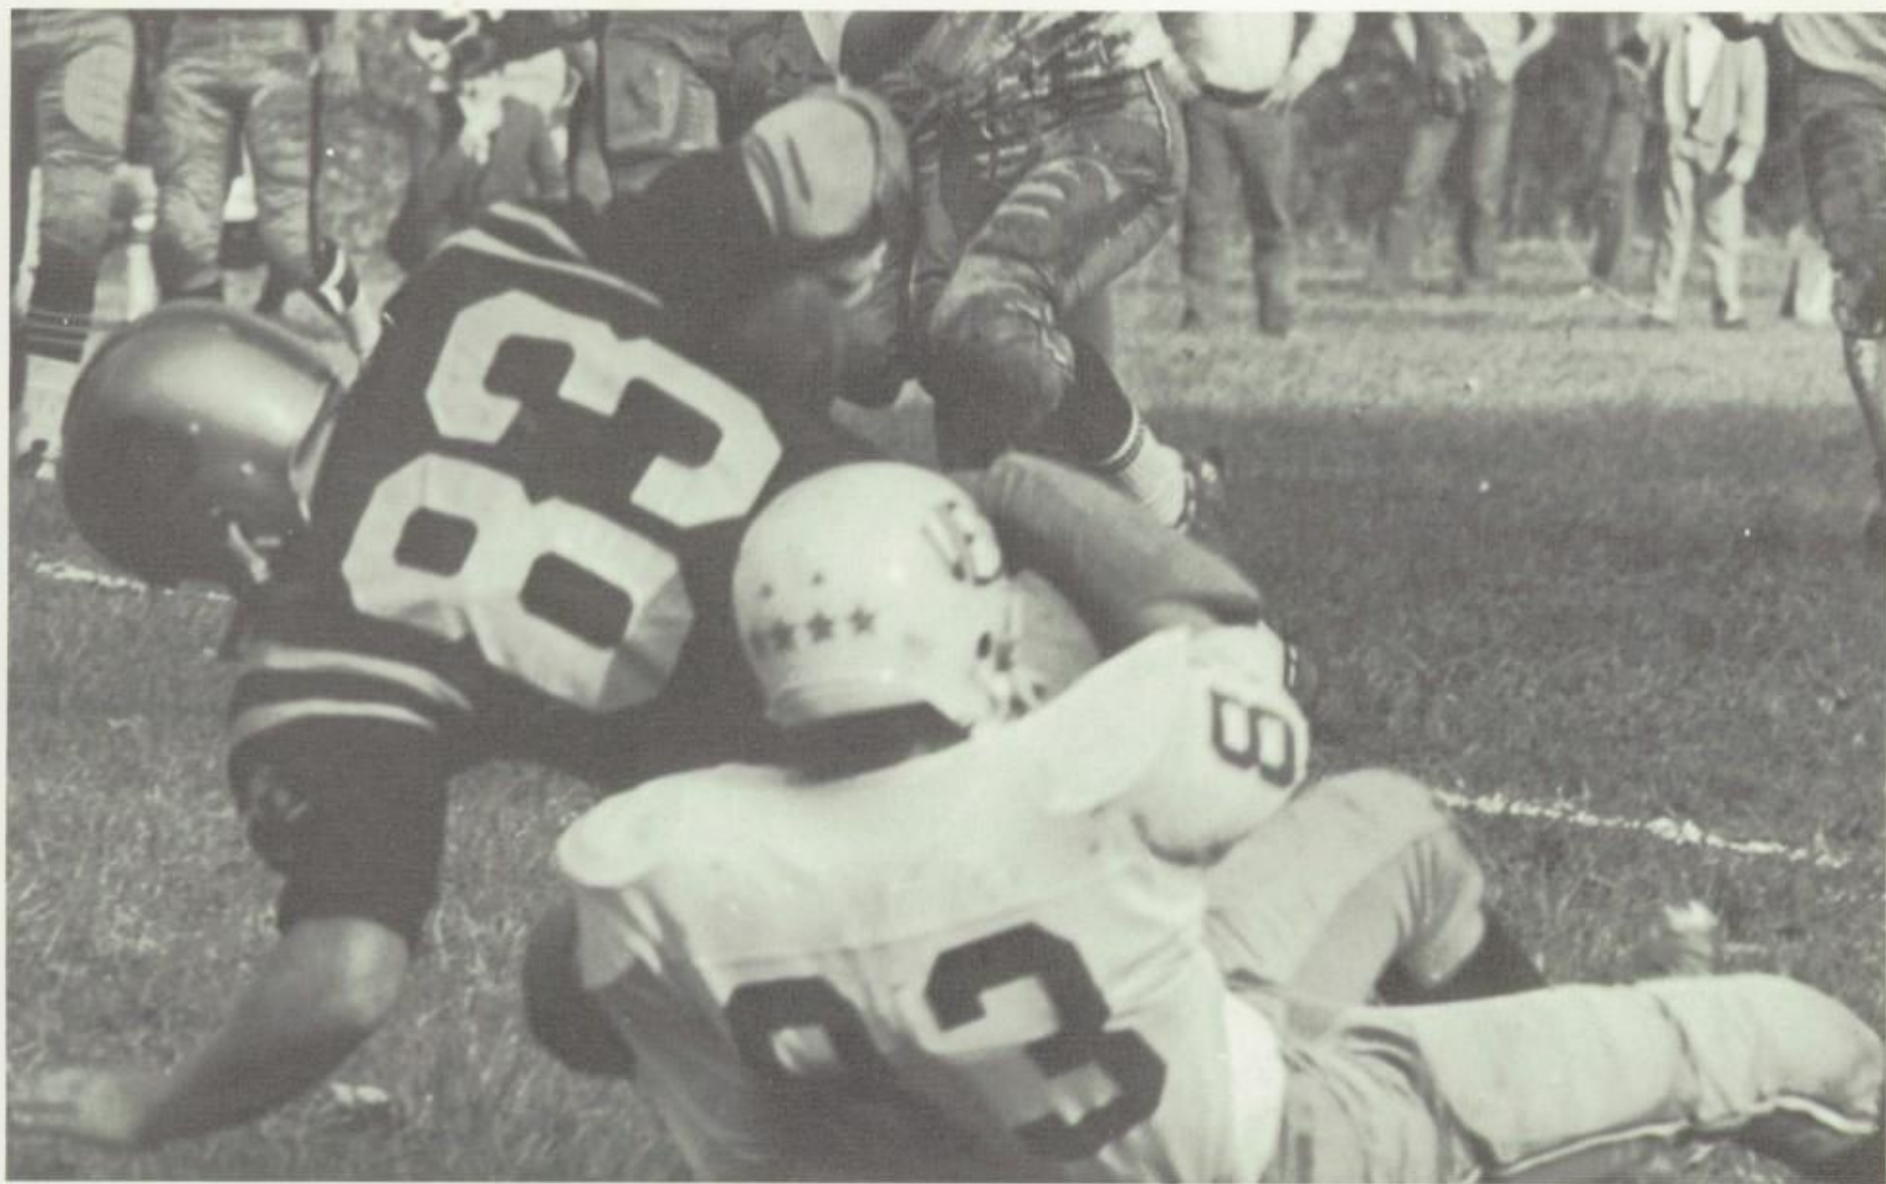

Doug Quarles (41) gains yardage as Bob Paisley (65) leads the way.

Jim Howell (12) is cut down after picking up a first down.

It was a long season.

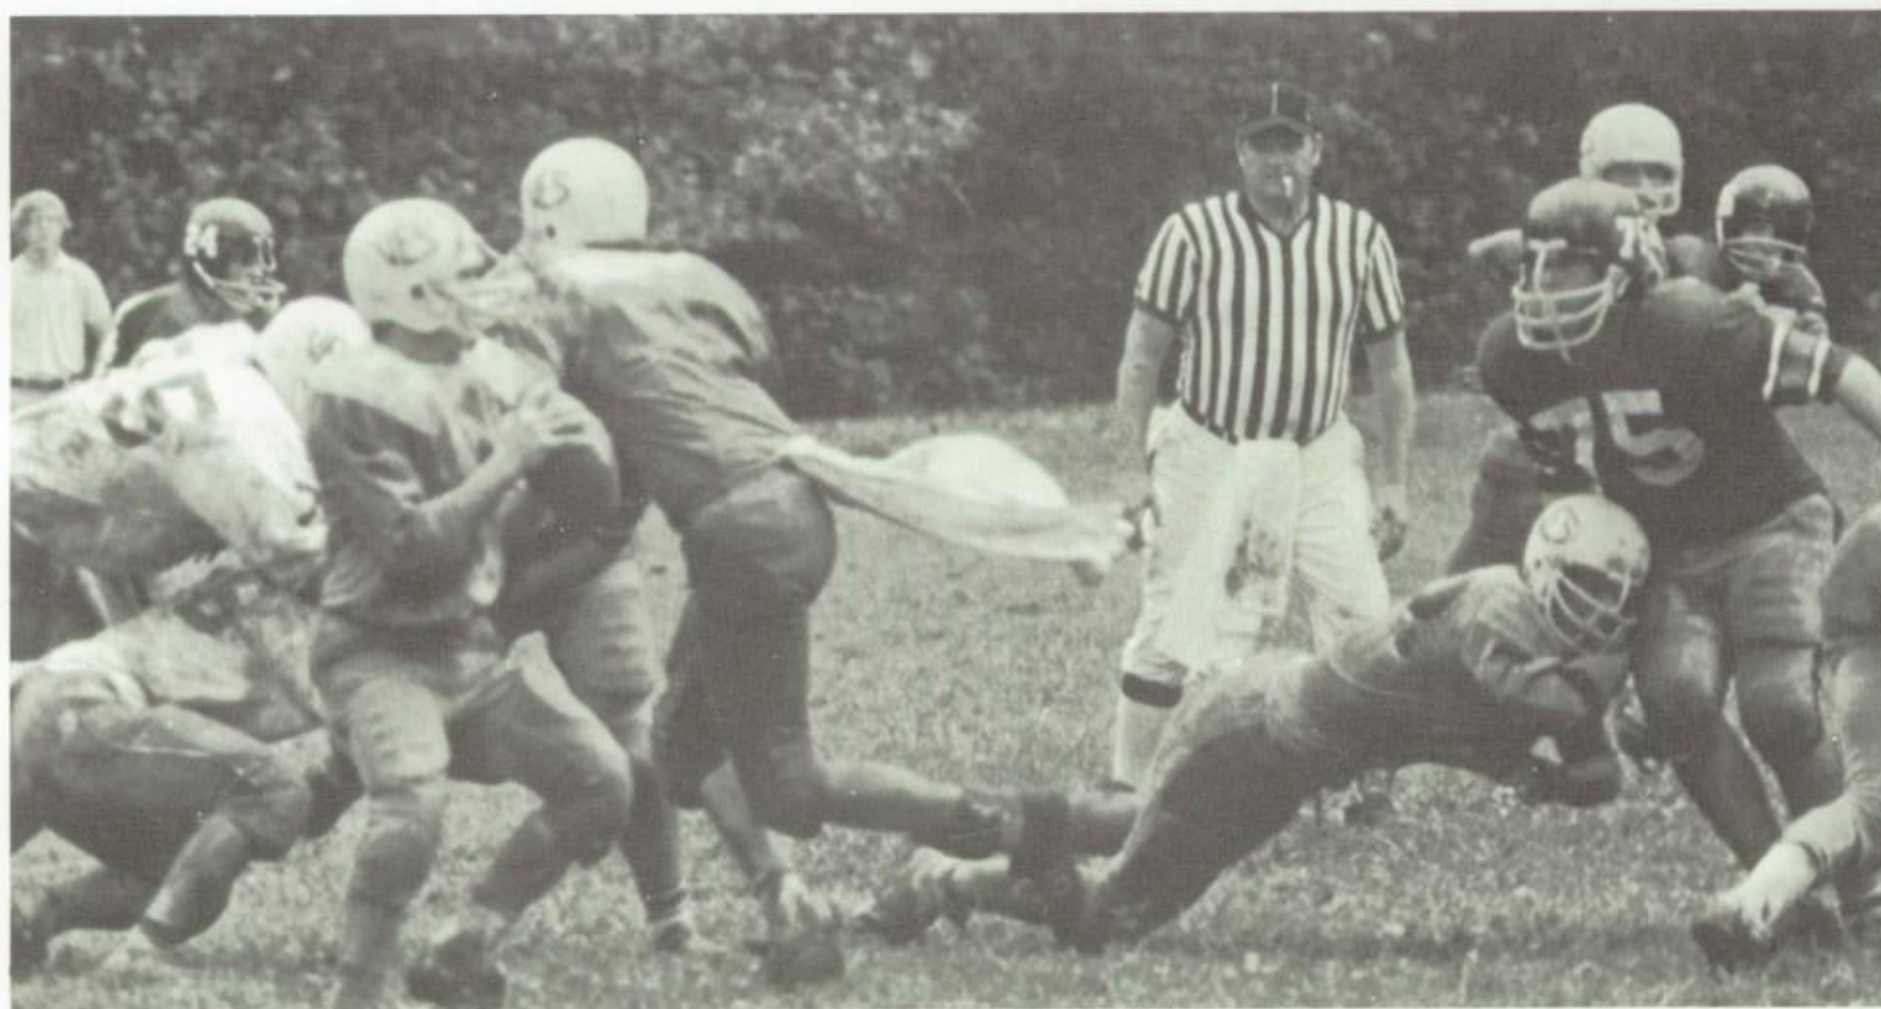

Preston Craighill (83) lives

Spencer Cash (86) throws one hell of a tackle on the Collegiate quarterback.

Jim Manly (30) makes first contact as John Reeves (75) comes in to put the crusher on.

Behind fine pass blocking Erich Thomas sets up to throw a long one.

Will Sigler dumps the Collegiate halfback for a loss.

Don Johnston (10) runs for his life.

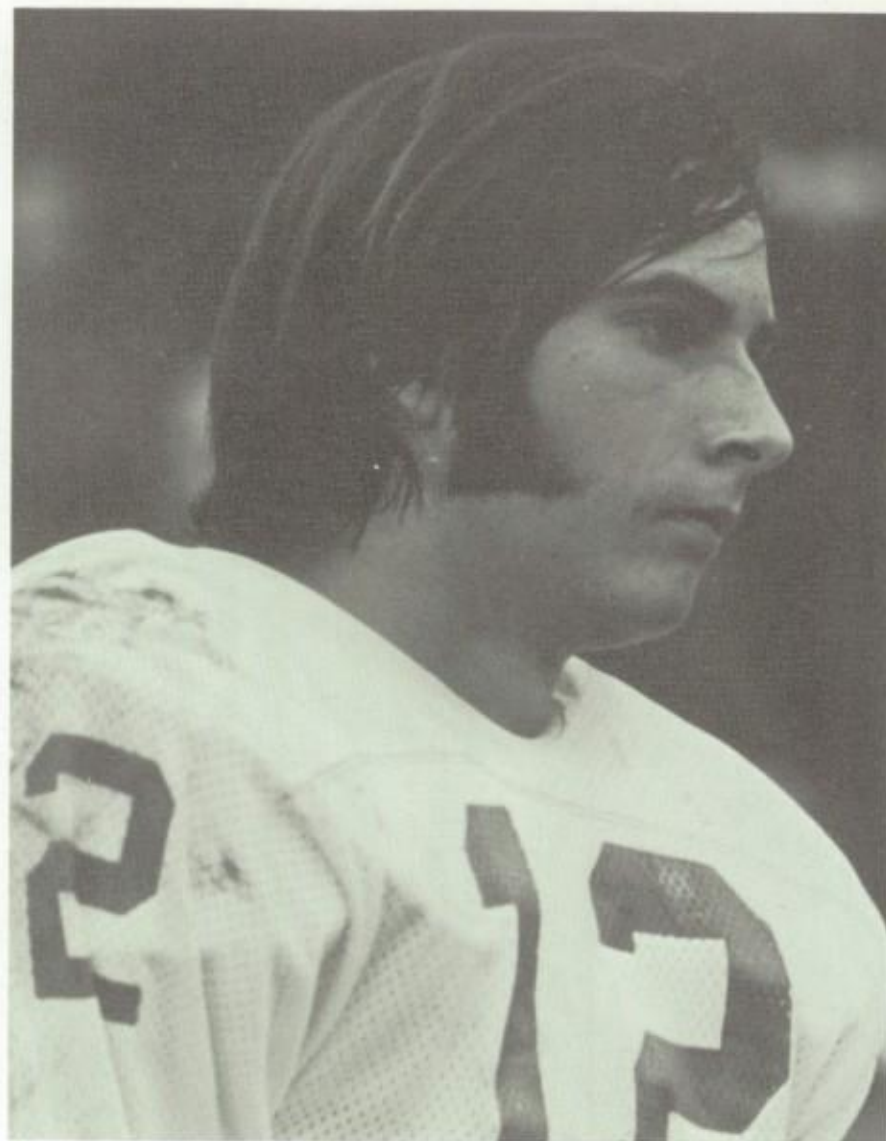

Gary Haley (42) outruns one of the St. Chris defenders.

Mike Basnight and Spencer Cash scissor the Episcopal fullback.

Coach Hamaker and Tom Stephenson assist an injured Bob Galloway.

A dejected Jim Howell watches the final seconds tick away.

Ronnie Hood returns a kickoff.

Live or die — it's all a part of the game.

Mike Basnight (66) and Bob Paisley (65) close in on the Randolph-Macon player.

J.V. Football

Andy Flowers (22) pushes to outrun the Blue Ridge defense.

Reid Leggett (40) lunges to escape the tough Blue Ridge defense.

Willie Johnson sees his chance and runs for daylight.

Dickie Ward catches a long pass and runs for a substantial gain.

The Woodberry punter barely gets his kick past the hard charging J.V. line.

V.E.S. defense stops a Fishburne runner dead in his tracks.

John Breckinridge puts the halts
on a Carlisle runner.

The team huddles for last minute instructions.

Charles Hunt, Sumner Burgwyn, Jonathan Lowrance, and Carleton Casey hope there will be something left of the opponents when they get back into the game.

Freshmen Football

Wood Beasley adjusts Jim Feinman's shoulder pads so that he can go back on the field and kill.

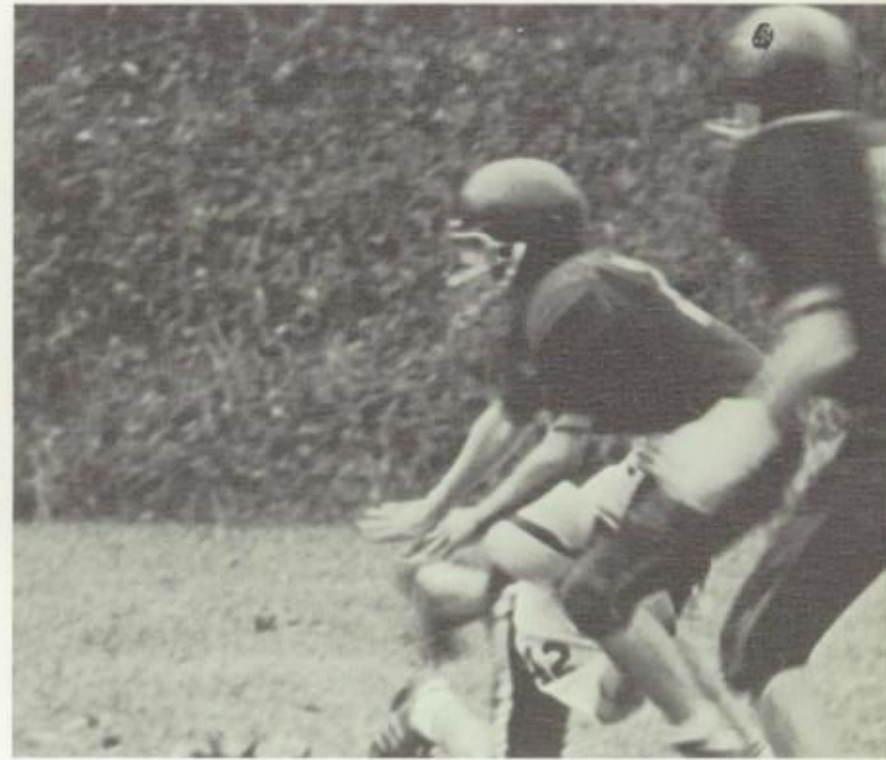

Ben Moomaw (24) sweeps around the end for another first down.

Dan Brundige ends his opponents attempt for a first down.

Not even an undefeated team is perfect. Wood Beasley hits the Woodberry receiver prematurely.

Tom Kirkpatrick carries the ball through for another touchdown.

Cross Country

Tay Louden and George Tucker sit around and relax before the big run.

Ed Gerhardt is bent over half dead from his run.

Mr. Hoffman and Mr. Young compile the results of a Cross Country meet.

The home stretch and David Wallace heads for the finish line.

"What do you mean they take off points for hitching?" asks George Tucker as David Wallace looks on in disbelief.

Spencer Morton comes in for an easy first with Tay Loudon tripping in right behind.

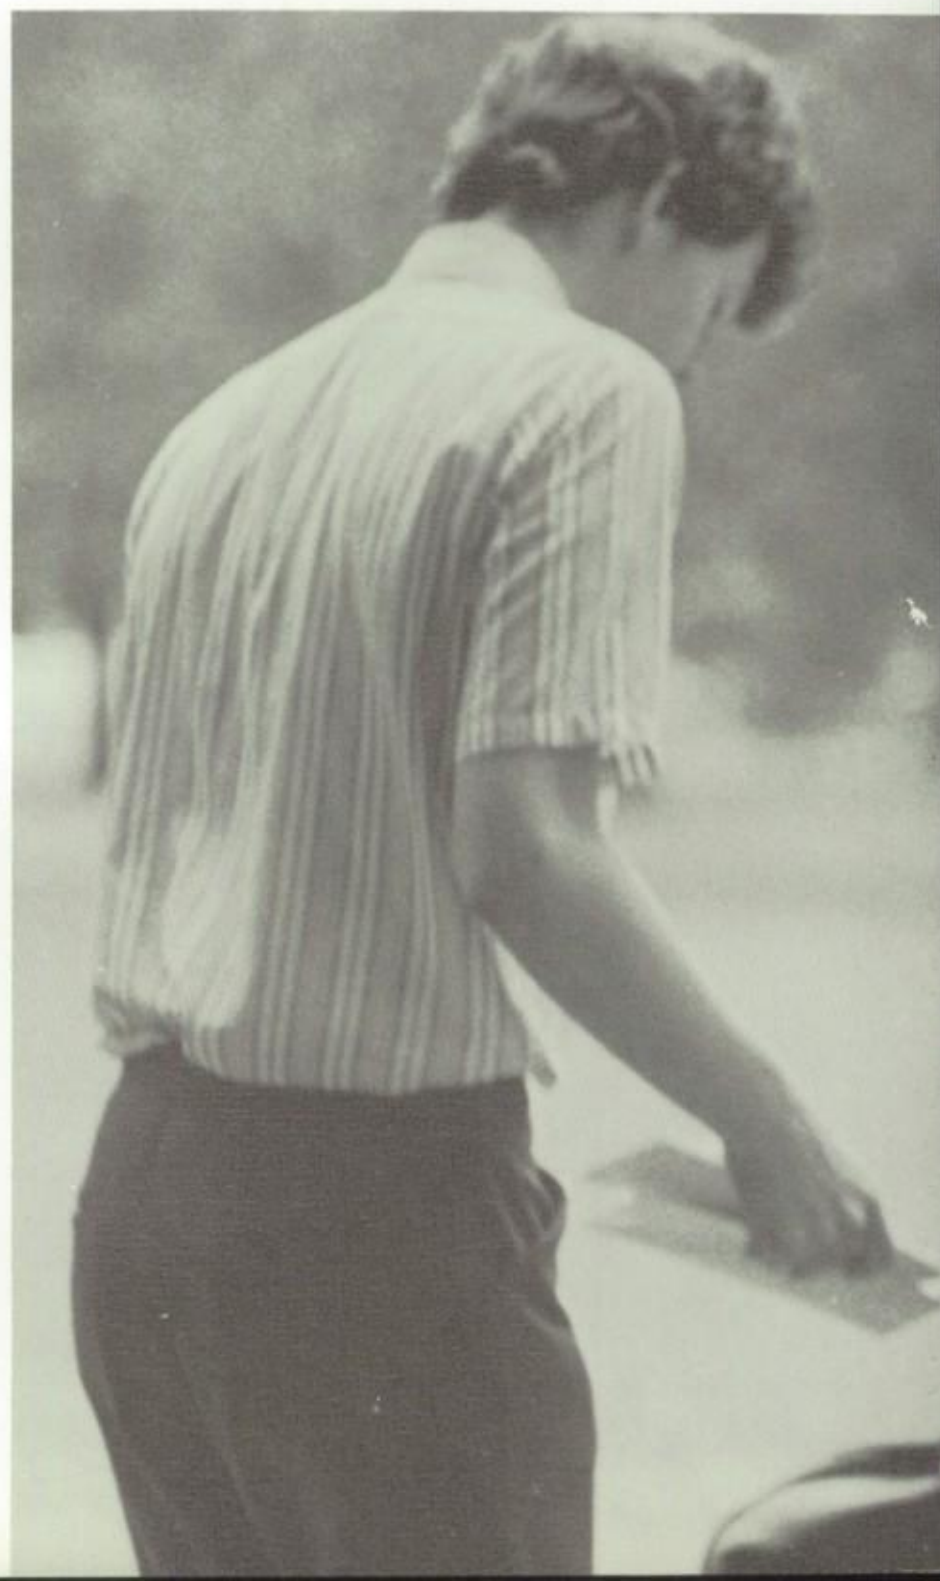

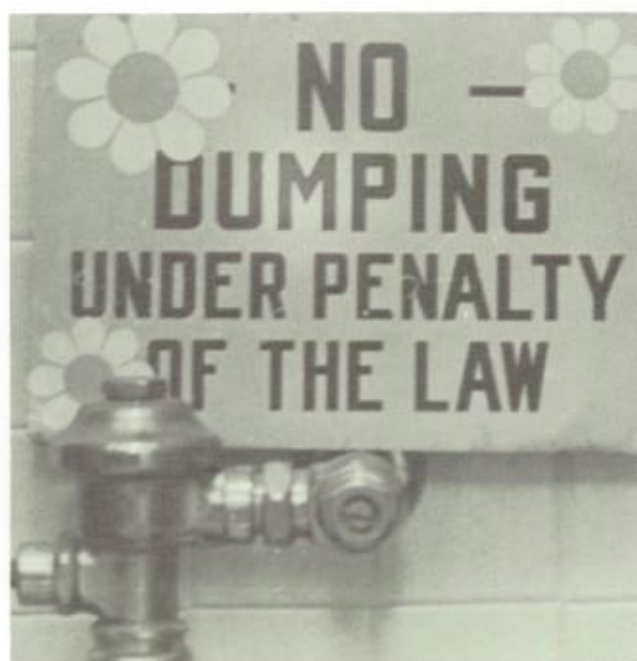

Doug Chapman, David Wallace, Ed Gerhardt, and Tom Ewing watch the rest of the team finish practice.

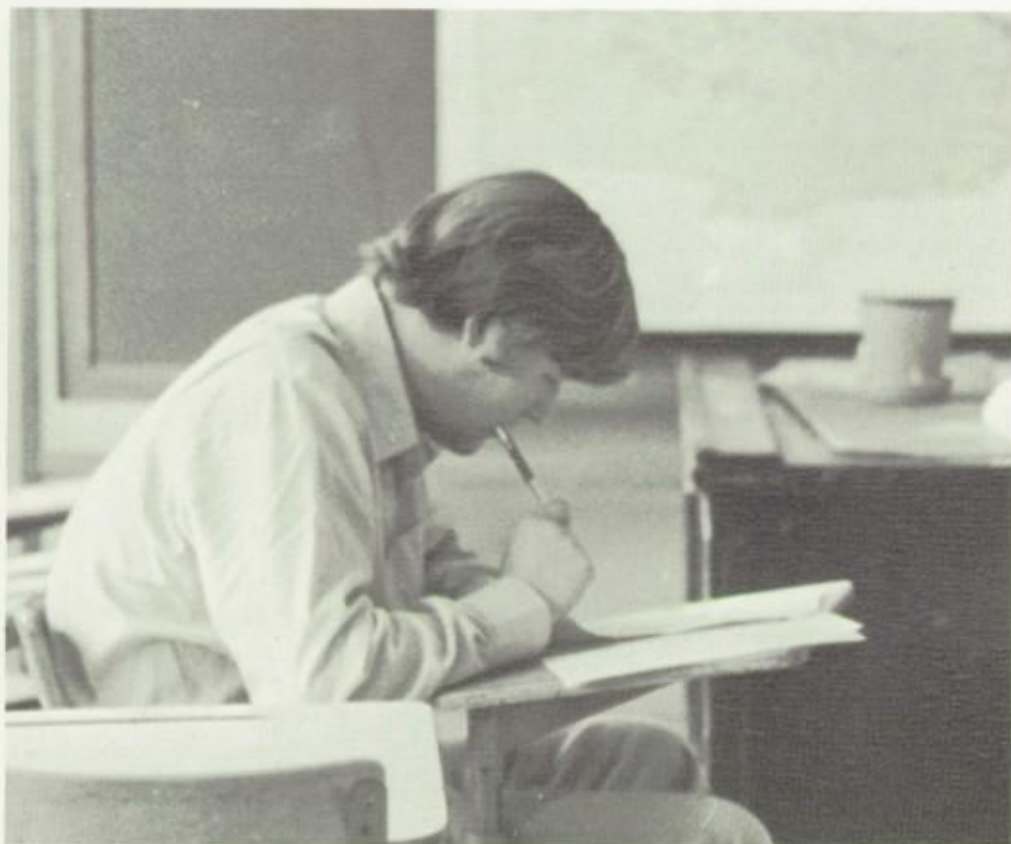

George Tucker and John Borden . . . simply amazing. What more can we say?

John Reeves installs a brain in his David Wood robot.

Hasty Bransford searches for words.

Tad Bromfield and Johnson Davis are counting the days until they can again return to the outside world.

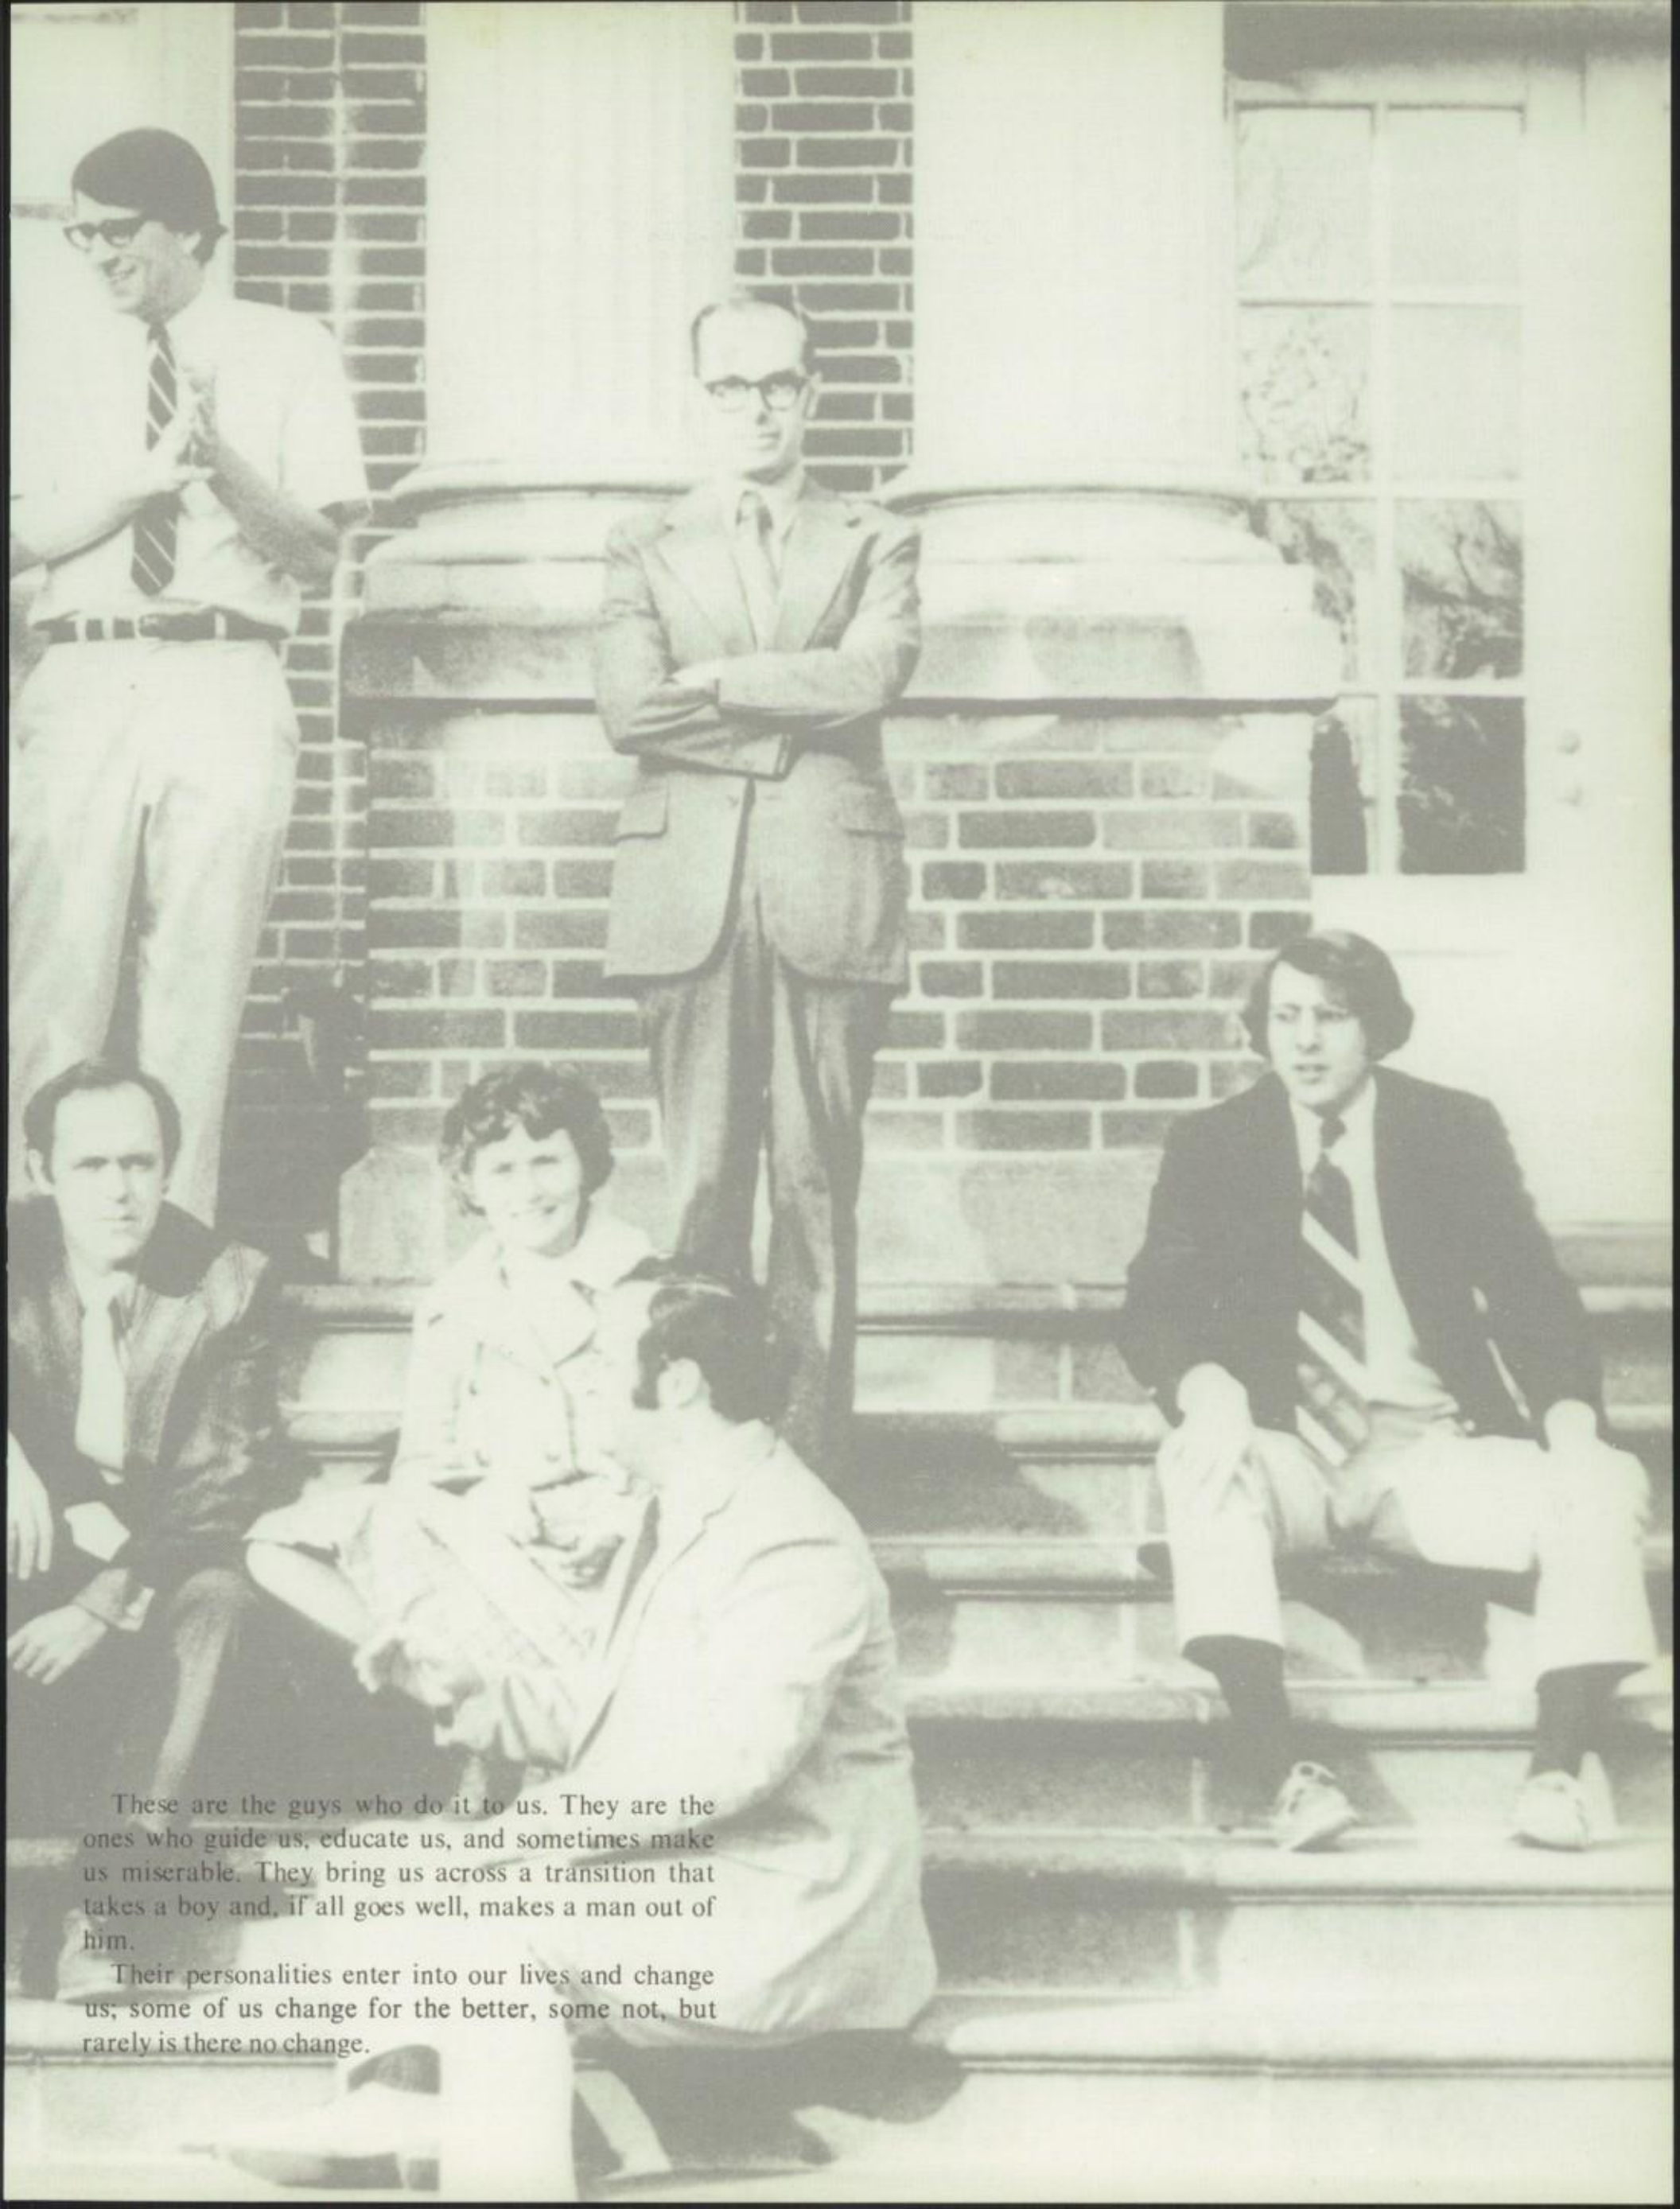

Mark Donner reads up on colleges for next years application process.

Neither rain nor snow nor wrecked vans will deter our dedicated mail boys, Tom Huntly and John Hutchison.

Faculty

These are the guys who do it to us. They are the ones who guide us, educate us, and sometimes make us miserable. They bring us across a transition that takes a boy and, if all goes well, makes a man out of him.

Their personalities enter into our lives and change us; some of us change for the better, some not, but rarely is there no change.

Winter Athletics

The winter athletics program was an overwhelming success, as our trophy case would indicate. Impressive records were made by the soccer and basketball teams that put each of them at the top in their leagues.

The Varsity Basketball team coached by Mr. Lynch harnessed all of its potential to end the season with a 16-3 record. Its 8-2 record in the Prep League put them in the place of Co-champions for the league. They were Runners-up in the tournament at Collegiate, losing to a strong Tidewater team in the finals.

The Varsity Soccer team went undefeated this year to easily clinch the Virginia Soccer League Championship. Coached by Mr. Moore, the team played 10 games without a loss, having an impressive 10-1-2 record for this season. A disappointing loss to Norfolk Academy in the tournament eliminated them from the competition, but put only a small blemish on their fine record.

Good performances were also shown on the J.V. and Freshman levels. The J.V. Basketball team ended with only a 4-6 season, but Coach Jobe felt that the team had been successful. The record was the best we have had recently for a J.V. Basketball team.

The Freshman class continued to be athletically strong as they pulled through with a winning basketball season. Their 5-4 record is a tribute to Coach Hoffman, Johnny Holloway, and the team's ability.

J.V. Soccer had a rough season. Coaches Young and Crenshaw led them to two wins and three losses. Two games had to be cancelled, however, and these could well have given the team the winning season they wanted.

Varsity Soccer

Senior, Spencer Cash, makes a pass to the right wing from deep in his own territory as Bob Gilliam covers.

Inside forward, Will Martin, gains possession in opponent's penalty area.

Bob Paisley, on attack, rushes in to attempt a shot at goal for another Bishop victory.

Spencer Morten beats a Woodberry fullback on the right wing.

An aggressive John Barron steals the ball from two forwards.

Graham Baker makes a tight defensive play as John Barron stands around with his mouth open.

Skipper Holt (34) breaks down the left sideline as Gary Haley anticipates a pass.

Don Thomson takes a shot while a Maggie Walker fullback defends.

Frank Morton clears the ball to set up an offensive play.

Gary Haley makes a head pass downfield.

Mr. Moore and the team watch from the sidelines while the Bishop Booters play on toward the Prep League Championship.

J.V. Soccer

Coaches Crenshaw and Young brief the team before the big practice.

Ben Moomaw fights his way through a tough defense in a J.V. soccer practice.

This is a soccer ball. Here. Kick it, the ball.

Tri-captain Jim Ward dribbles around Chris Senior in an attempt to score.

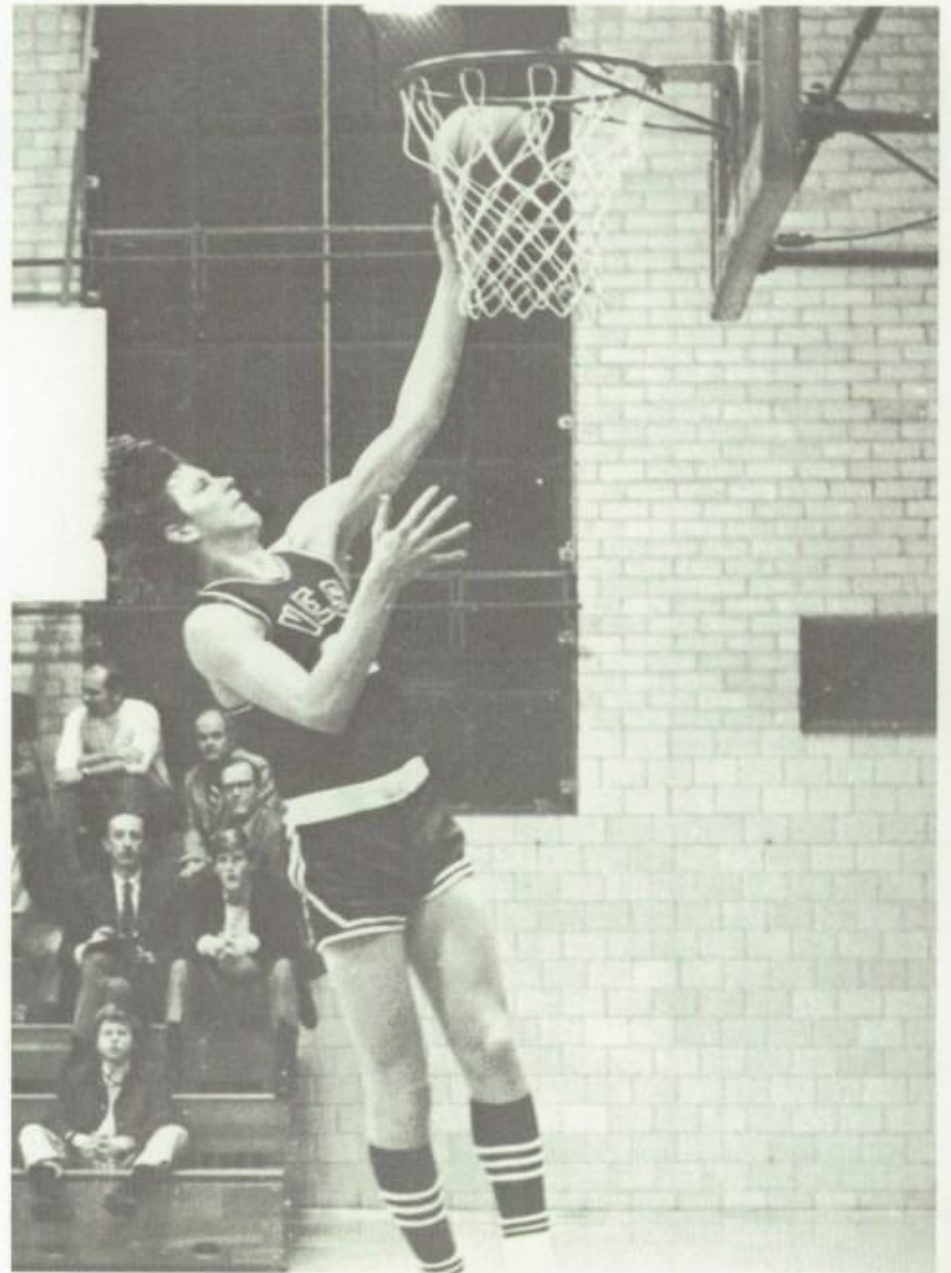

Will Willman dives to make a spectacular save.

Varsity Basketball

After receiving a quick outlet pass, all-prep guard, Lee Carr, starts the fast break against Collegiate.

Center Charlie Little goes in for an easy layup after intercepting a pass in the Woodberry game.

Coach Lynch reviews the game strategy in the locker room before the Bishops take the floor.

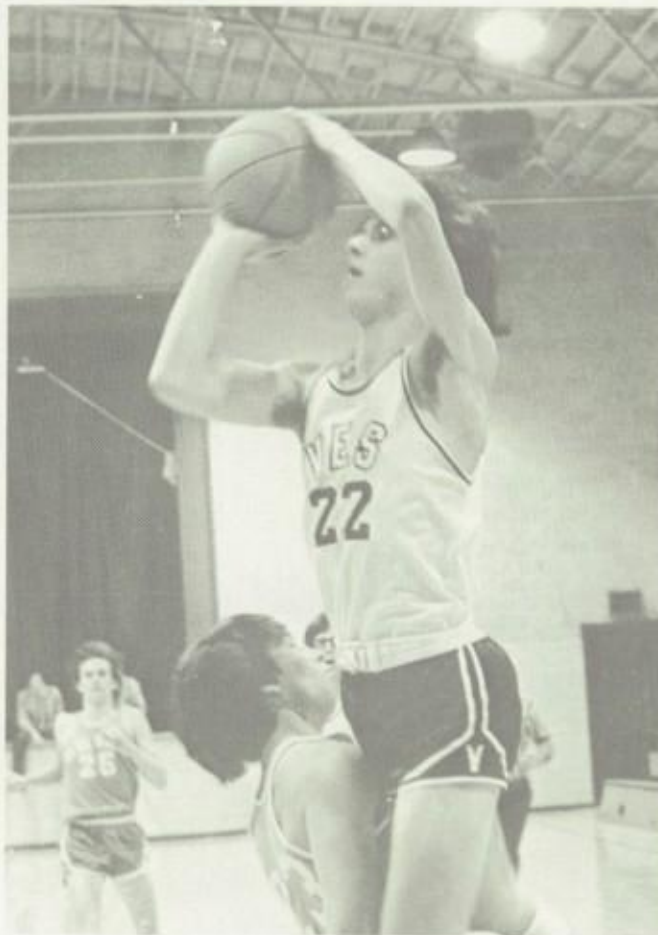

Bishops' Charlie Little finds it difficult to shoot over the 6'8" Woodberry Forest center.

Walter Hogan slips by a Woodberry Forest defender for a running jump shot.

A typical sight — Lee Carr in a hard drive for the basket as a defender tries unsuccessfully to cut him off.

Center Charlie Little gets the tap to begin the second half of the game against the Lynchburg College freshman team.

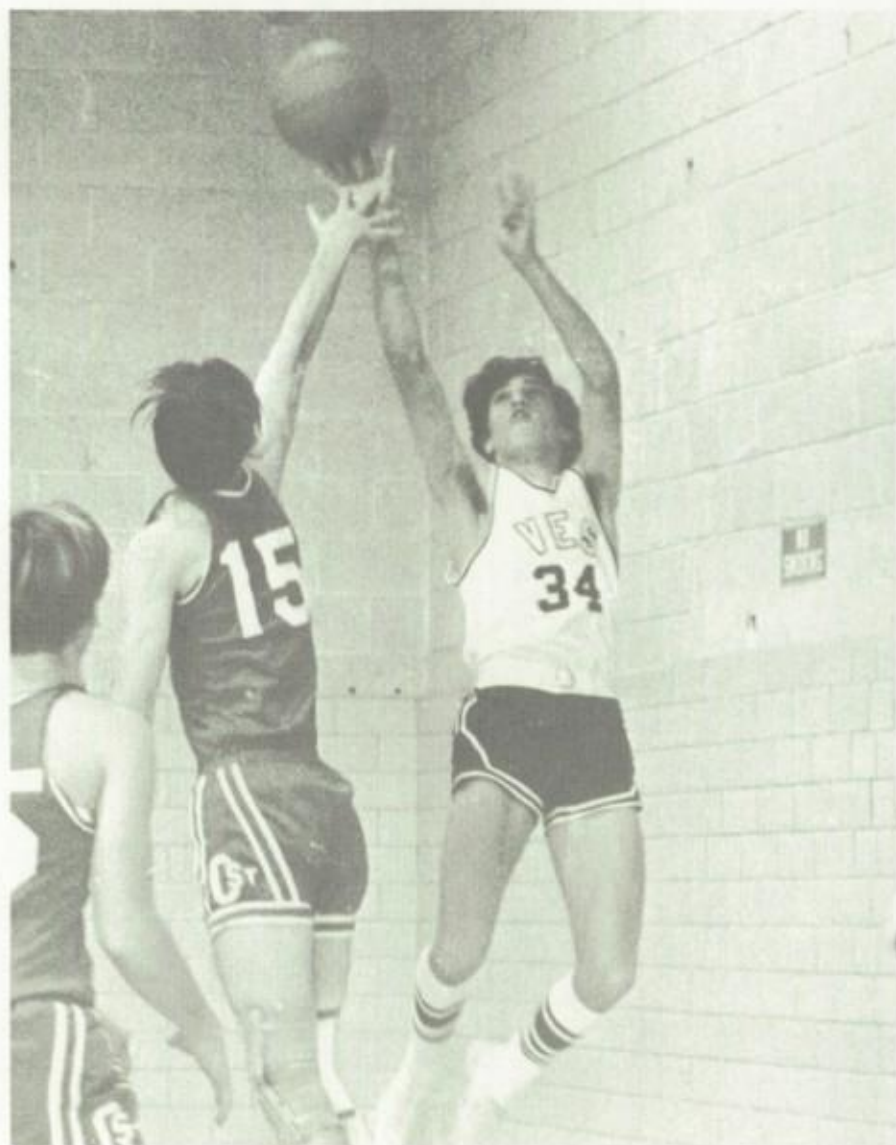

A triumphant crowd hoist Mr. Lynch to their shoulders after the Fathers' Week-end victory over Woodberry Forest.

Tom Goodson fights a larger opponent for a rebound.

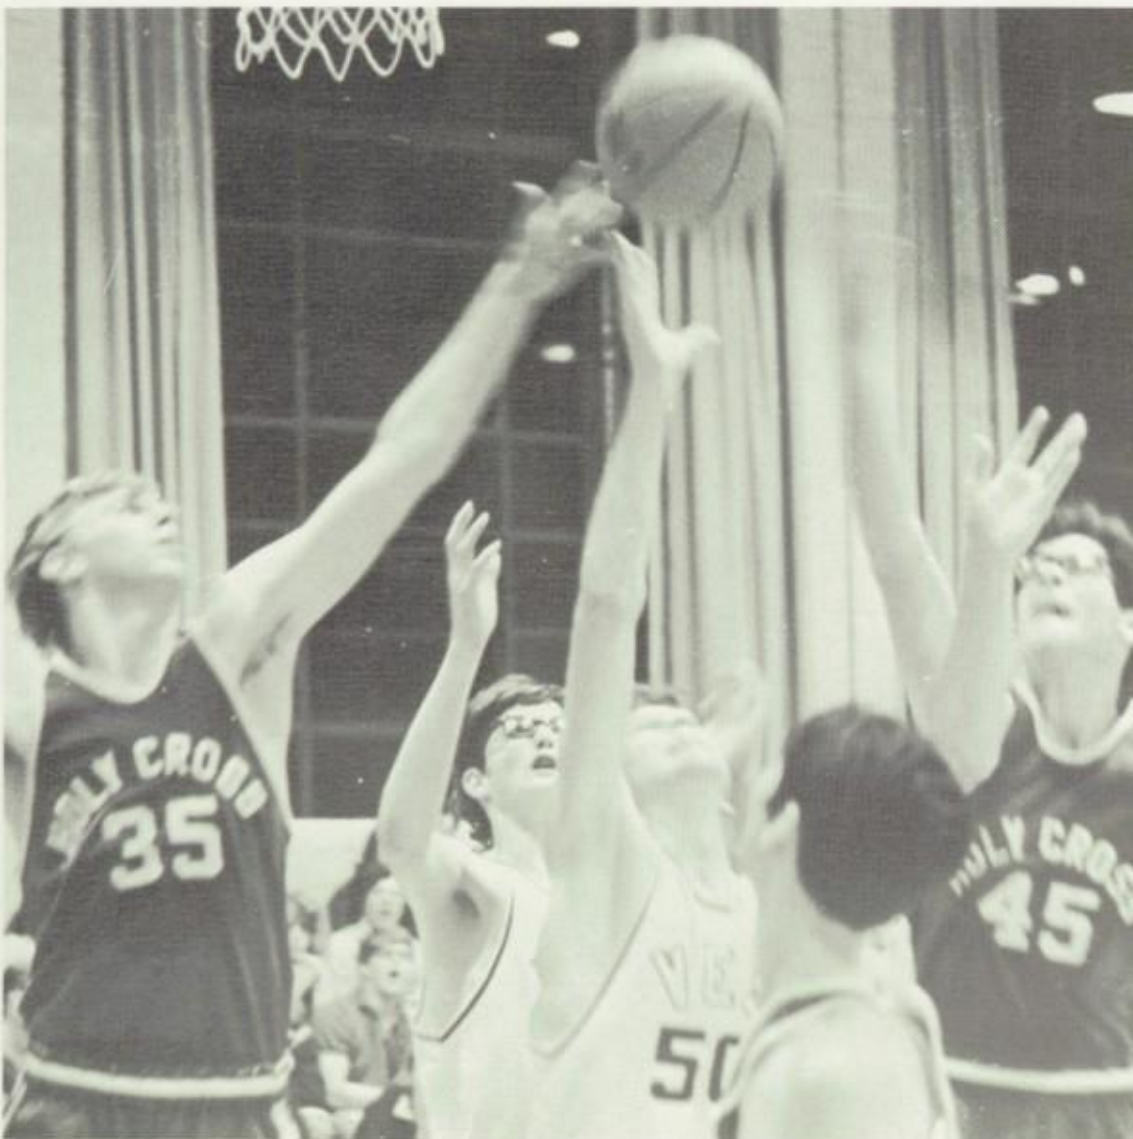

Leading Bishop scorer, Bill White, takes a jump shot in the St. Christopher's game.

Dick Moon appears to be hacked as he attempts a base line shot under the basket.

Charlie Little, Tom Anton, Lee Carr, Bill White, Tom Goodson, Walter Hogan, Blount Williams, and Don Johnston — The team warms up.

A scrappy V.E.S. team fights for a loose ball.

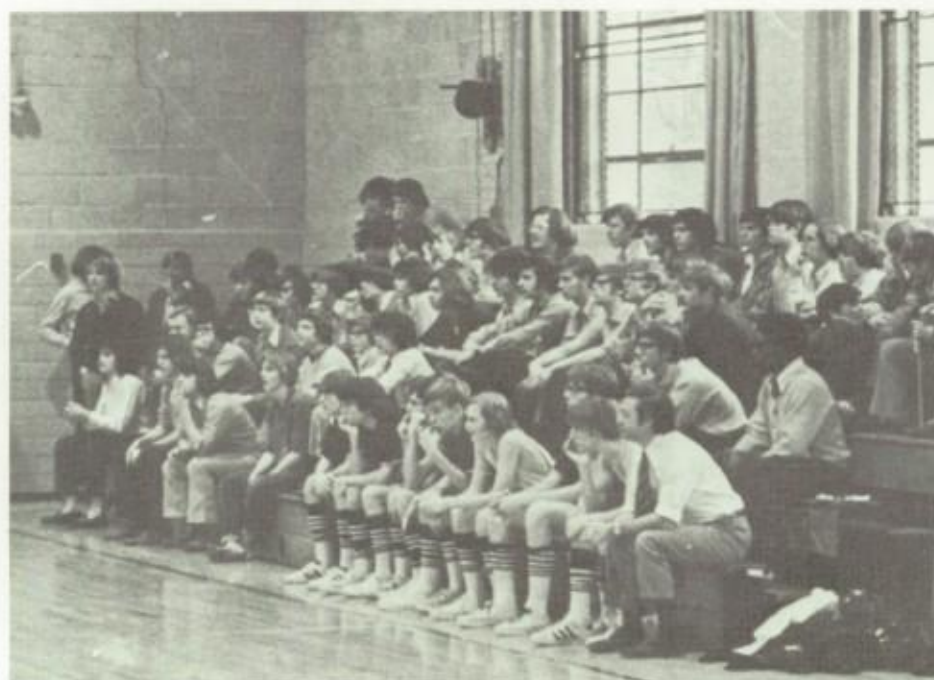

Junior, Don Johnston, follows through in good form after taking a jump shot against Holy Cross.

J.V. Basketball

Bill Cook and unidentified team mates hassle over a rebound against Blue Ridge.

Coach Jobe, the J.V. team, and spectators watch tensely as a junior Bishop makes a charity throw.

Bill Cook and Tony Johnson watch Jay Stone add to the score.

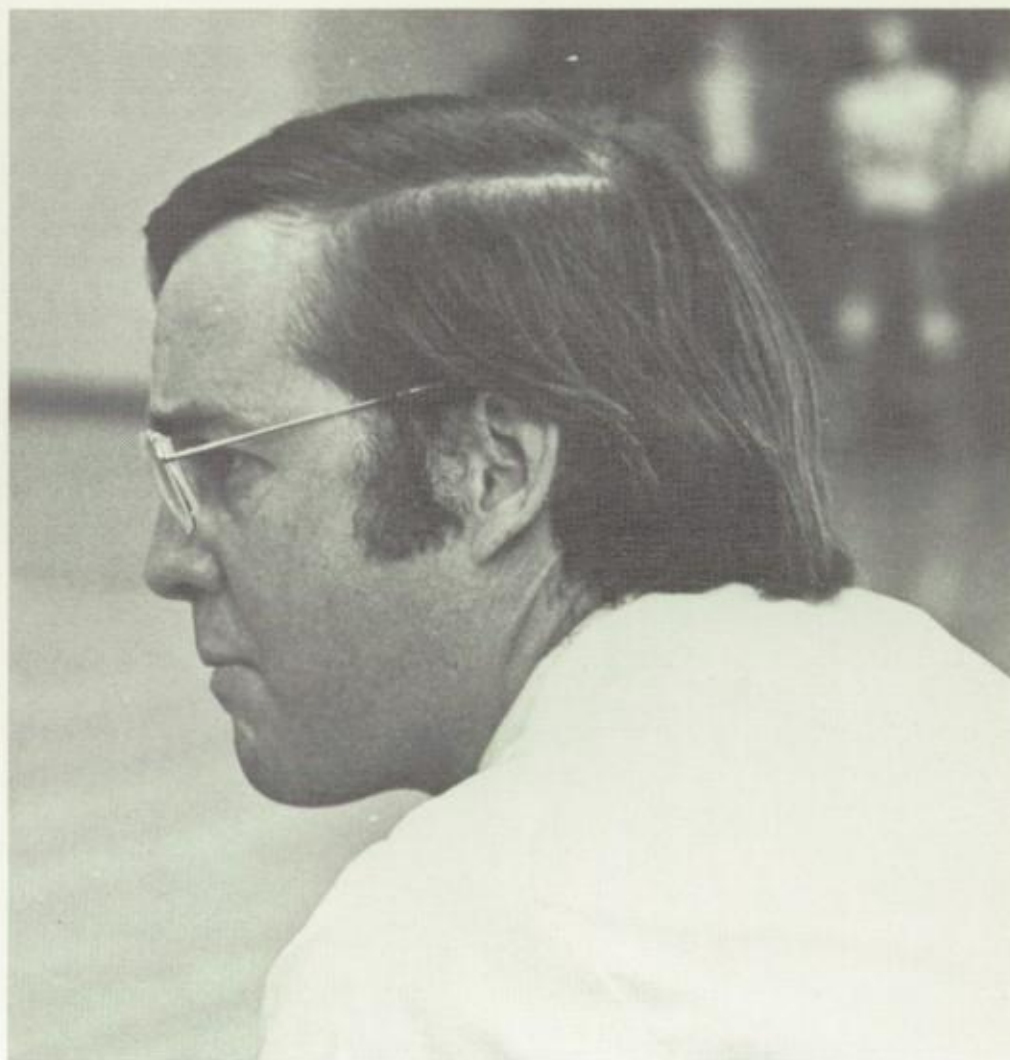

Terry Sherrill goes high over Dunbar defender for two more points.

Bill Cook, Jay Stone, Jim Green, Paul Howard, John Borden, Tony Johnson, and Mr. Jobe watch the action at the far end of the court.

Bill Cook looks on as Stan Archibald strains to get over a tall Blue Ridge defender.

Coach Nat Jobe doesn't seem to be too happy with the action on the court.

Bill Cook displays his skill at shooting from the outside.

Harry Horton, the team's leading scorer, drives in for an easy lay-up.

Freshmen Basketball

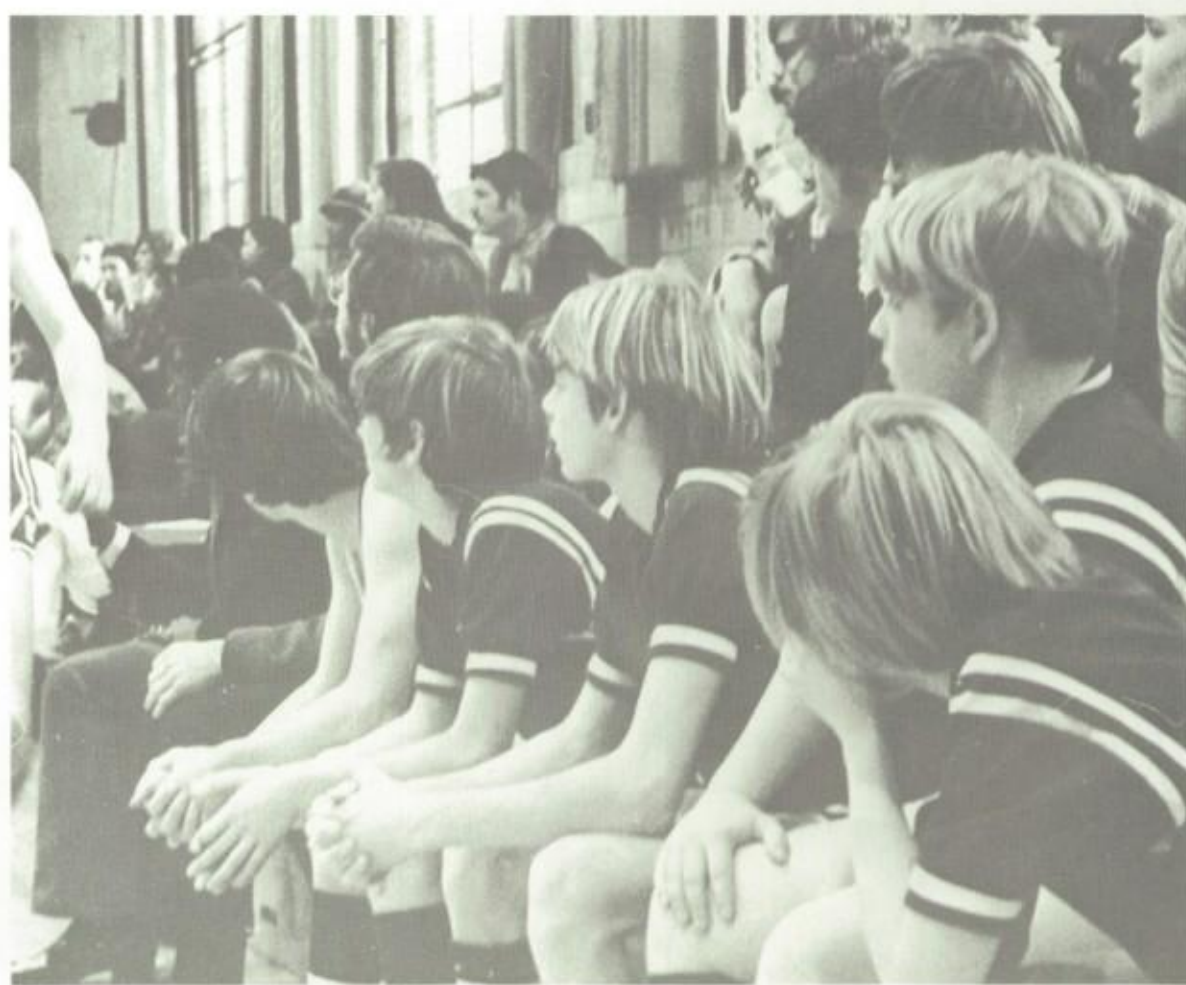

Assistant coach, Johnnie Holloway, hands out plays in practice.

Van Porter goes up for an easy two.

Mr. Hoffman supervises practice from the sidelines.

The Baby Bishops check the clock during a time-out.

Wood Beasley calls the play.

The team receives hasty instructions from Johnnie Holloway and Mr. Hoffman.

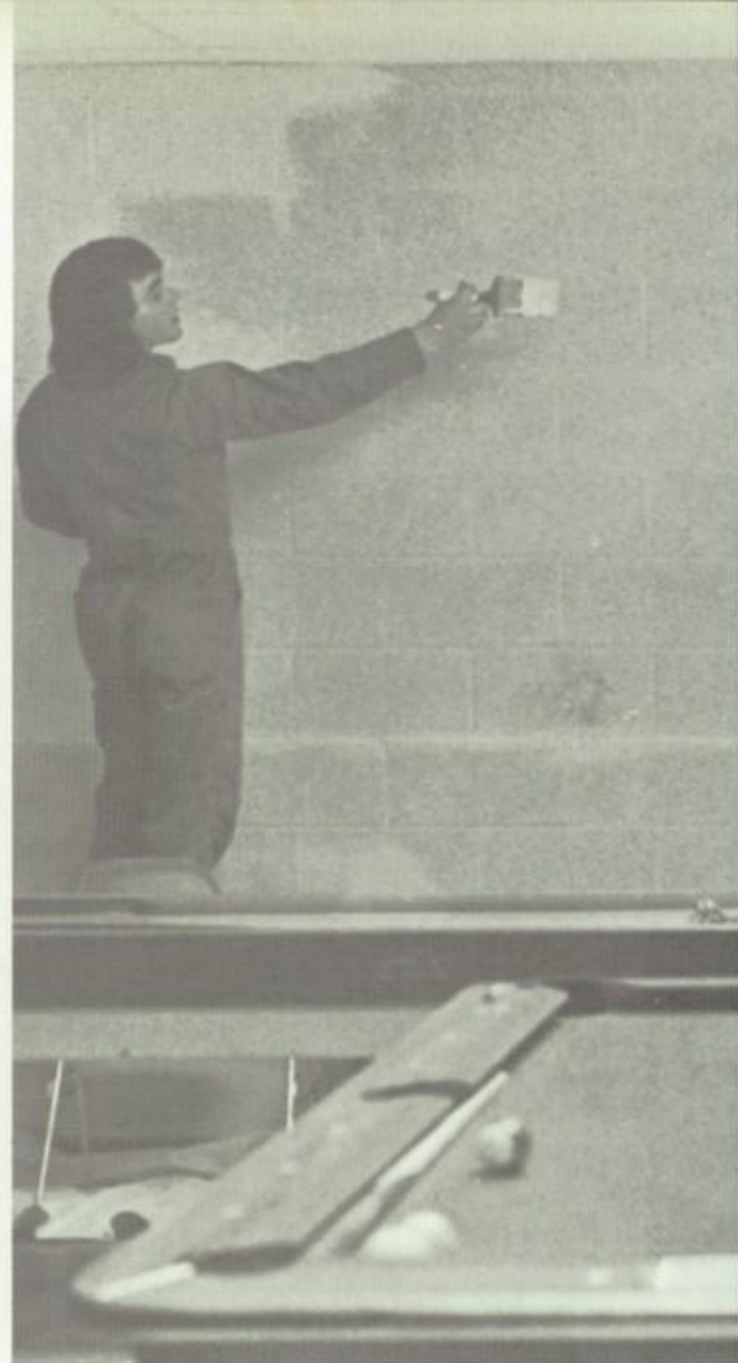

The center tap begins another game for the freshmen.

Van Porter (14) tries to intercept a pass as Tom Kirkpatrick (22) and James McCombs (24) rush in.

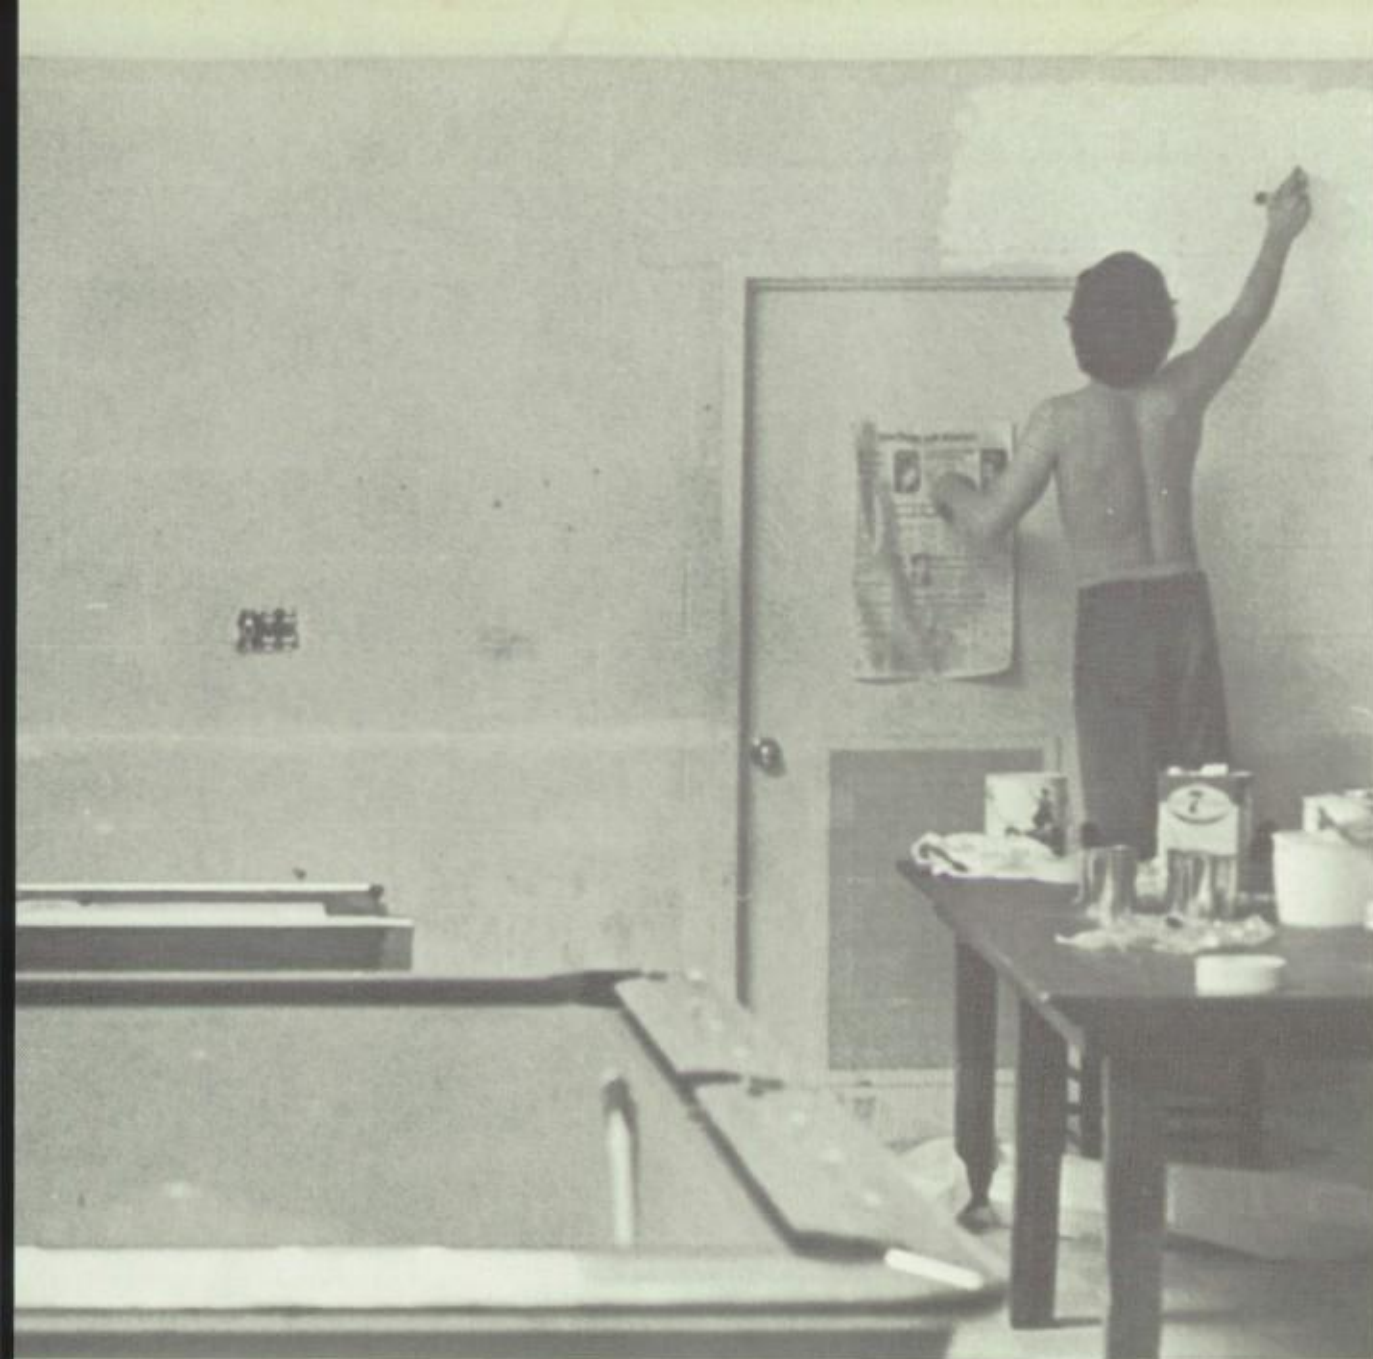

There they are. The illustrious Ice Brigade; Blount Williams, Lee Carr, Charlie Nottingham, and Bill White.

Alfred Motsinger and Jimmy Watson share one.

This looks like the results of a weird experiment but it's only Jim Amburn's reaction to his low draft number.

Ronnie Hood and Billy Nutt take it upon themselves to do the much needed job of painting the pool room.

Just as long as it goes down the ole throat, Bo Thomas doesn't care about the method employed.

This is a normal Bob Paisley. His spastic twitches and harelip were too fast for the camera.

STANDING: Charlie Nottingham, Tom Purdie, Chip Armbrister, Jay Stone, Mike Buhler, David Haga, New Boy Saunders, Campbell Karnes, Sandy

Shelton, Lee Herbert, Woody Warren, KNEELING: Stuart Scott, Jim Kluttz, Billy Nutt, David Brabson, James McCombs.

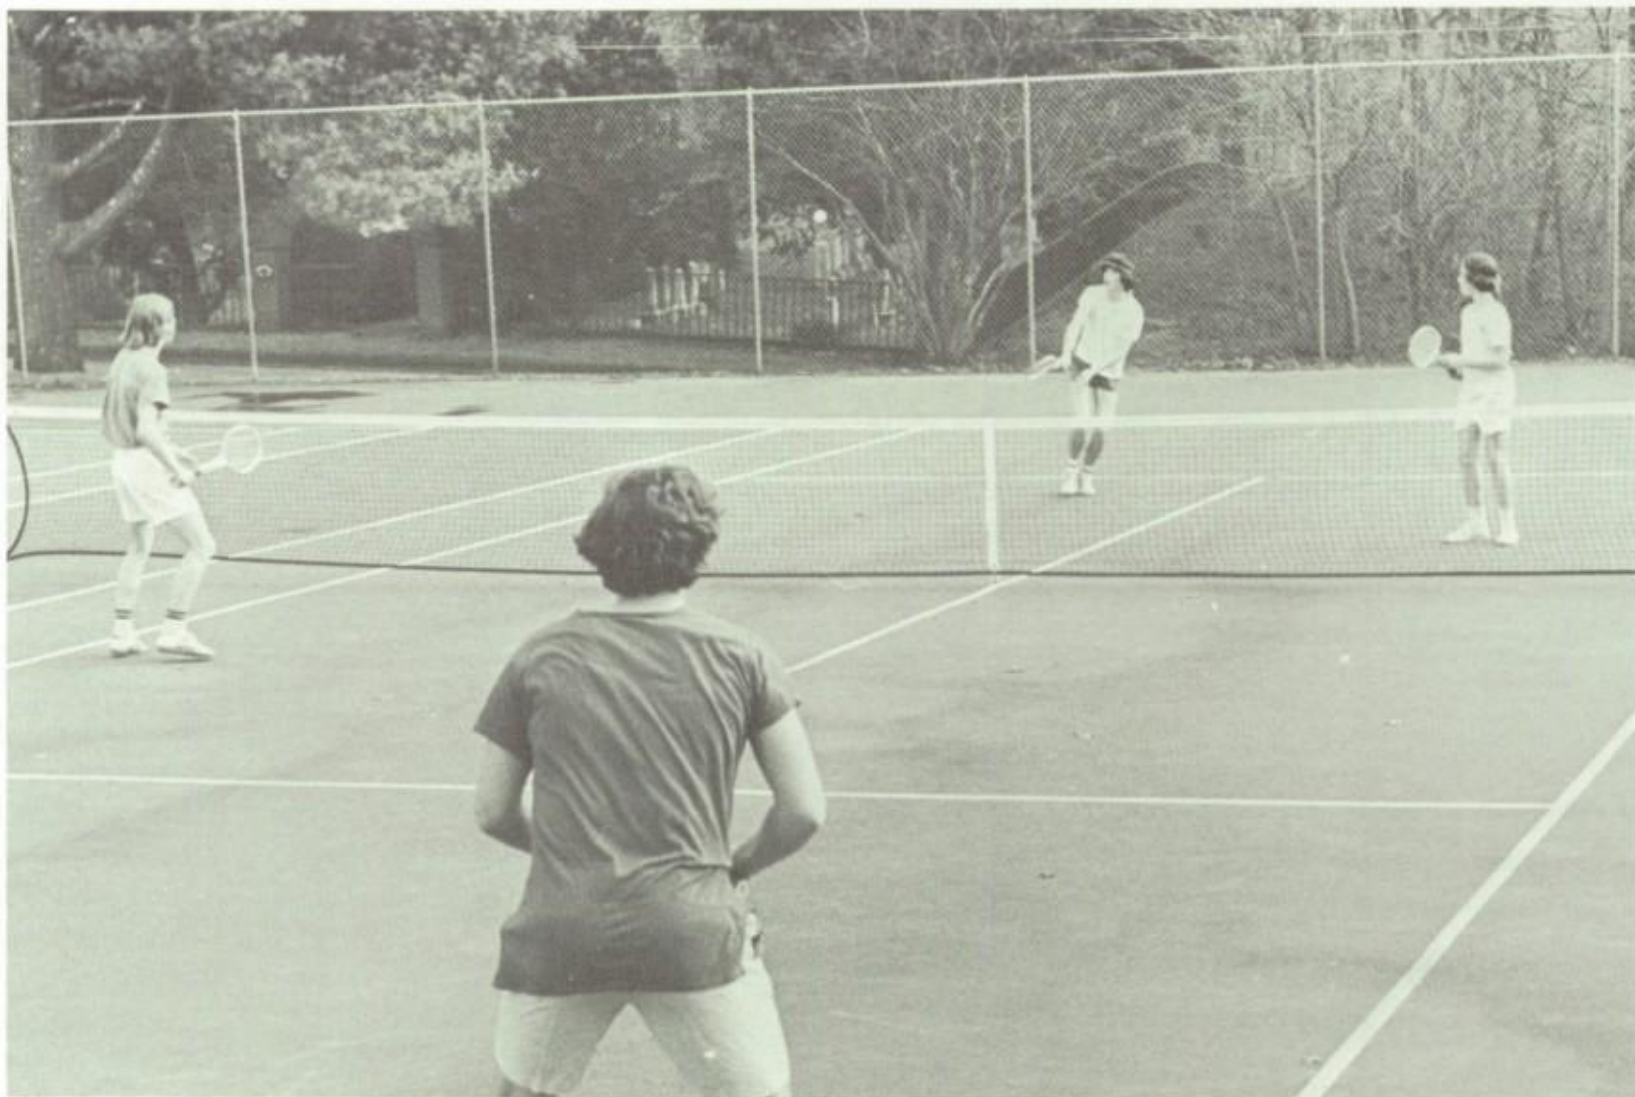

CO-CAPTAINS, Jim Kluttz and Woody Warren, pose with their ever-ready coach, Mr. Willey.

Returning lettermen, Billy Nutt, Charlie Nottingham, Jim Kluttz, Mr. Willey, Woody Warren, Rob Saunders, and Mike Buhler.

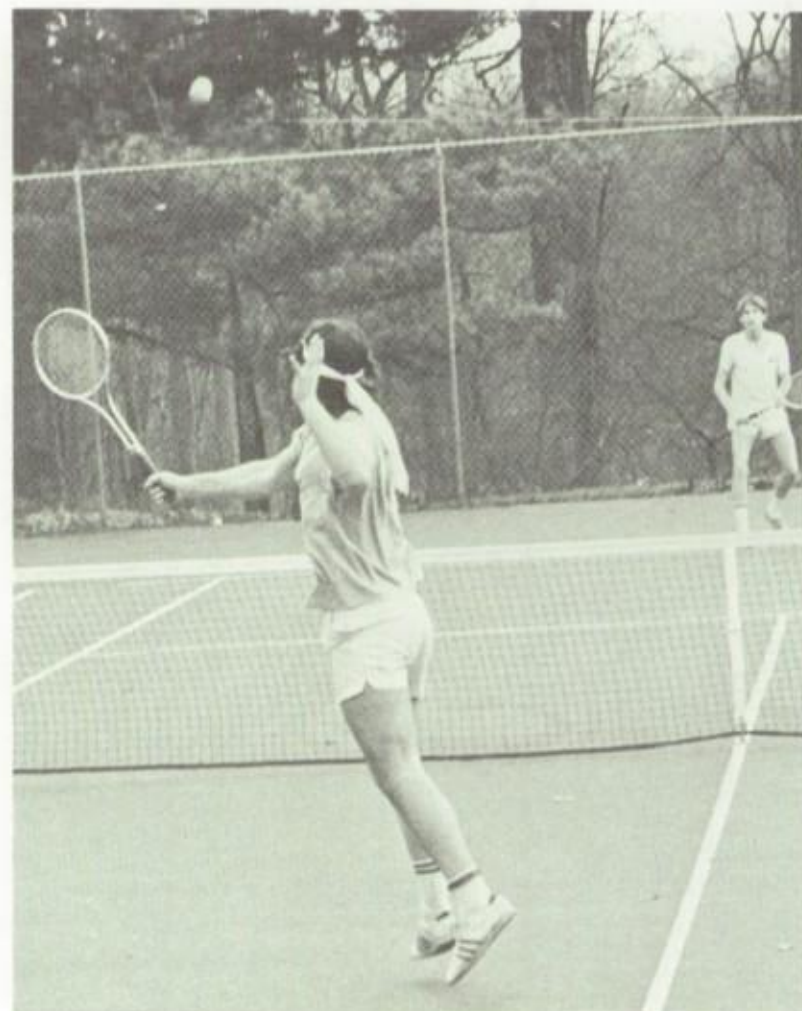

Varsity Tennis

Gary Stern watches partner Bo Thomas smash one back to Rush Dunaway and David Smythe.

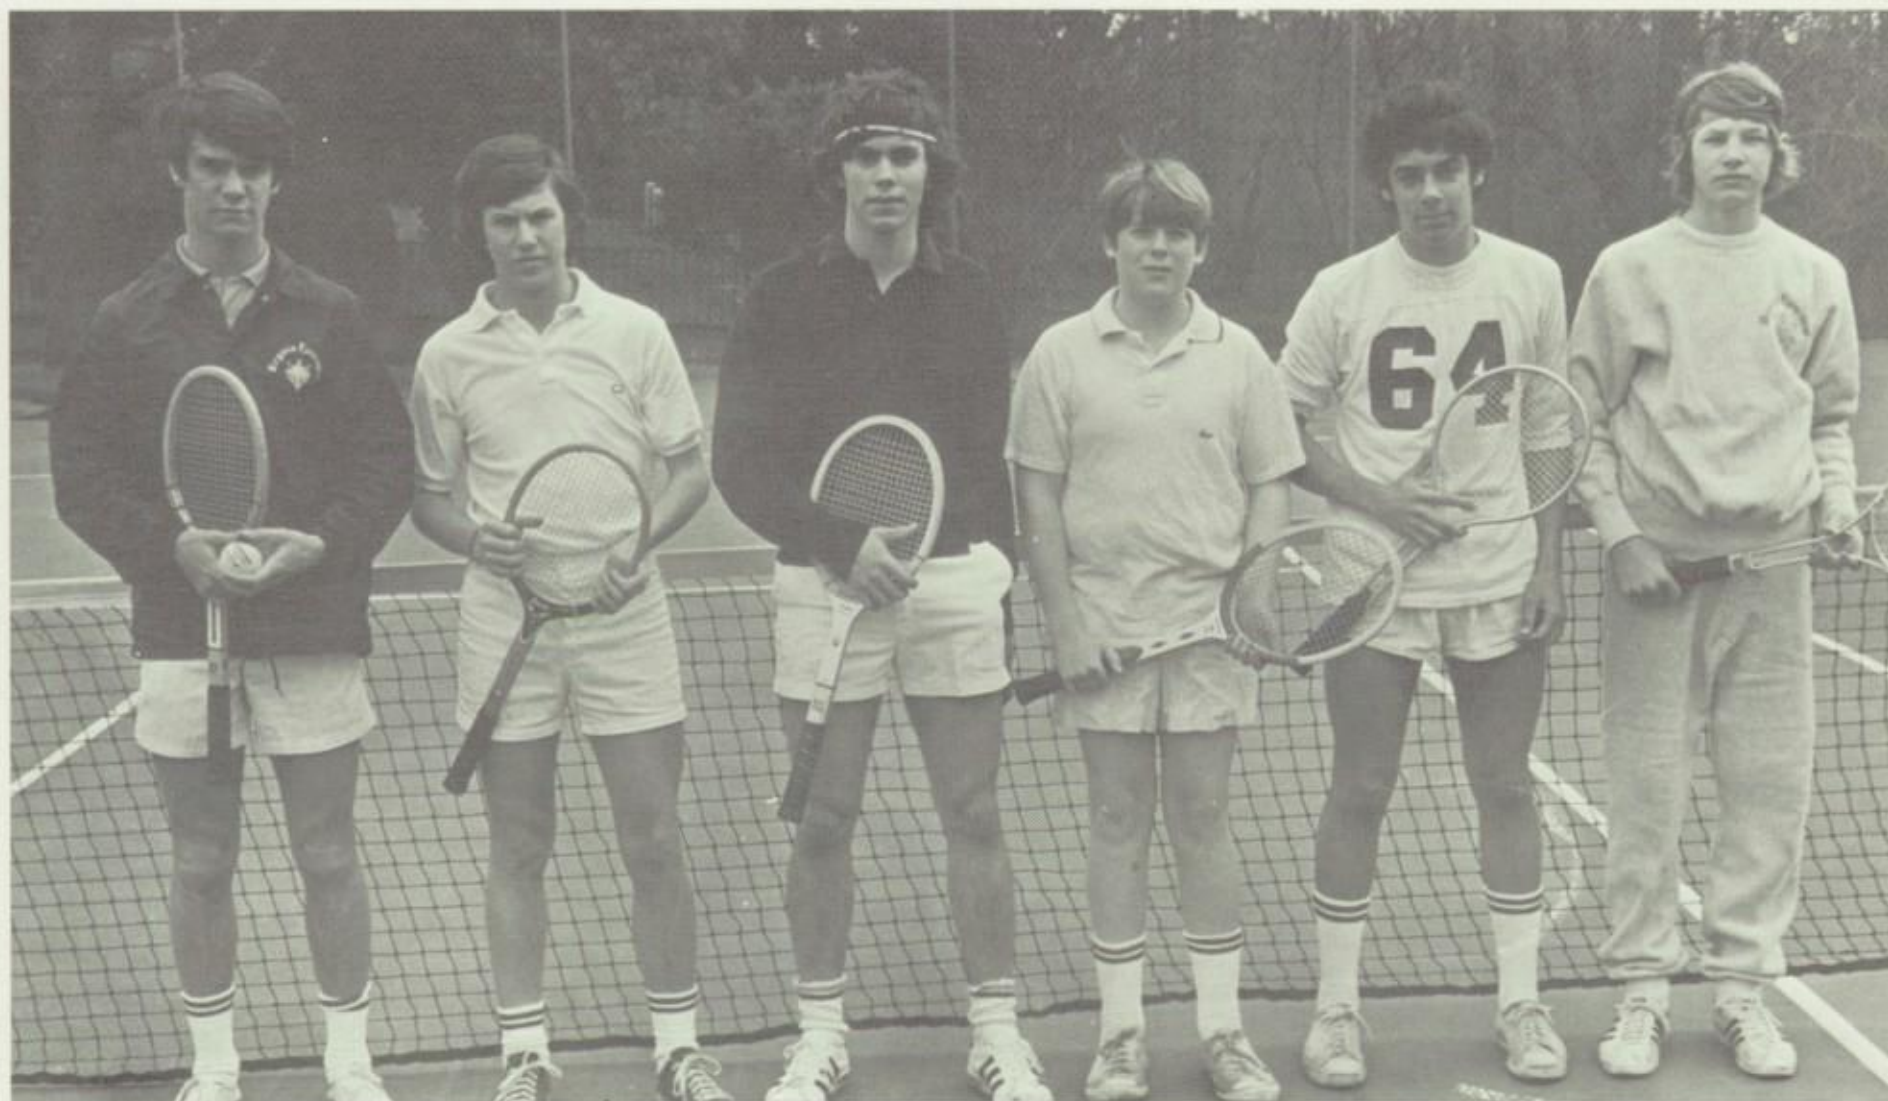

Captain Bill White displays fine form?

Jim Lea returns a serve to Don Thomson.

J.V. Tennis

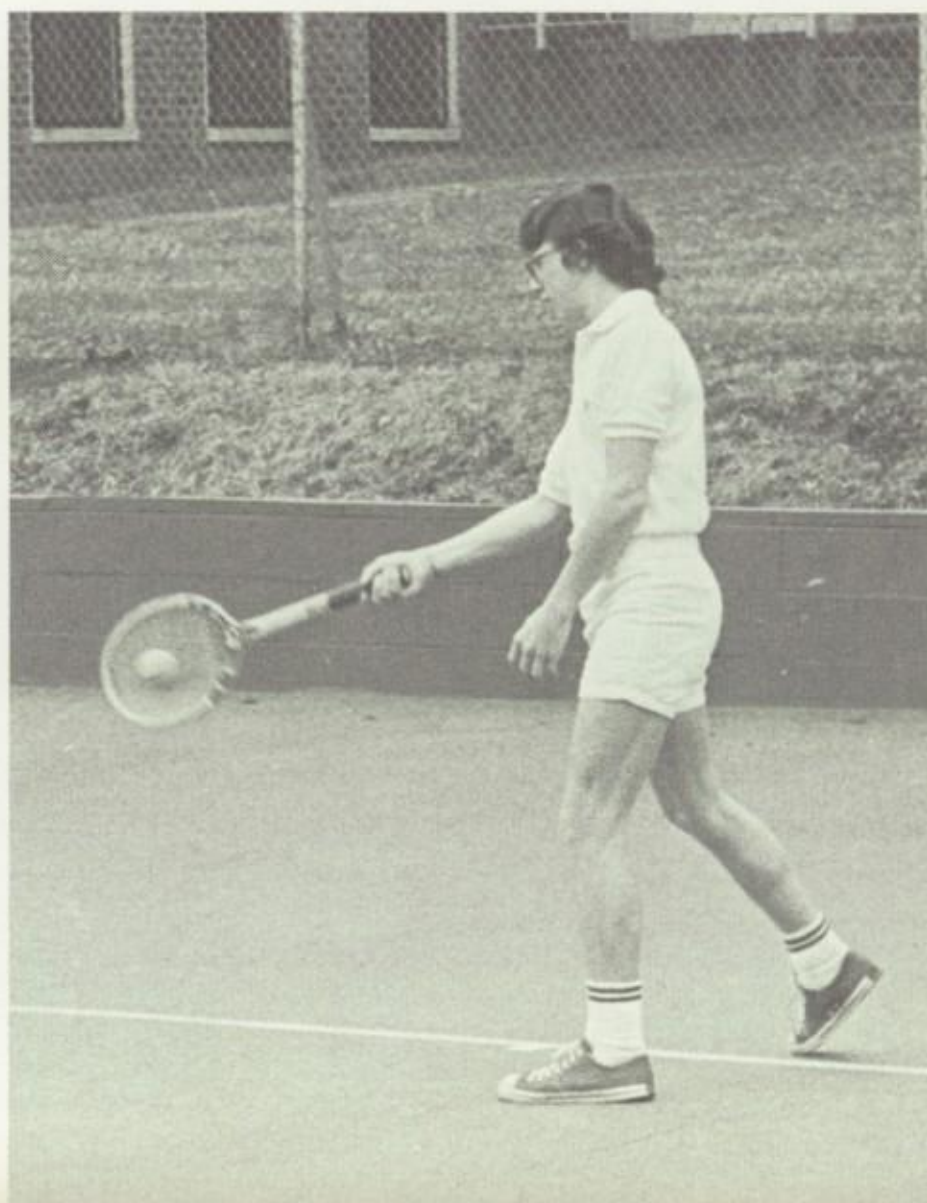

Billy Suhling, Kinsey Marable, Hal Tabb, Billy Barksdale, George Tucker, John Borden.

Hal Tabb hits the ball. What a man!

Kinsey Marabls lobs one over with ease.

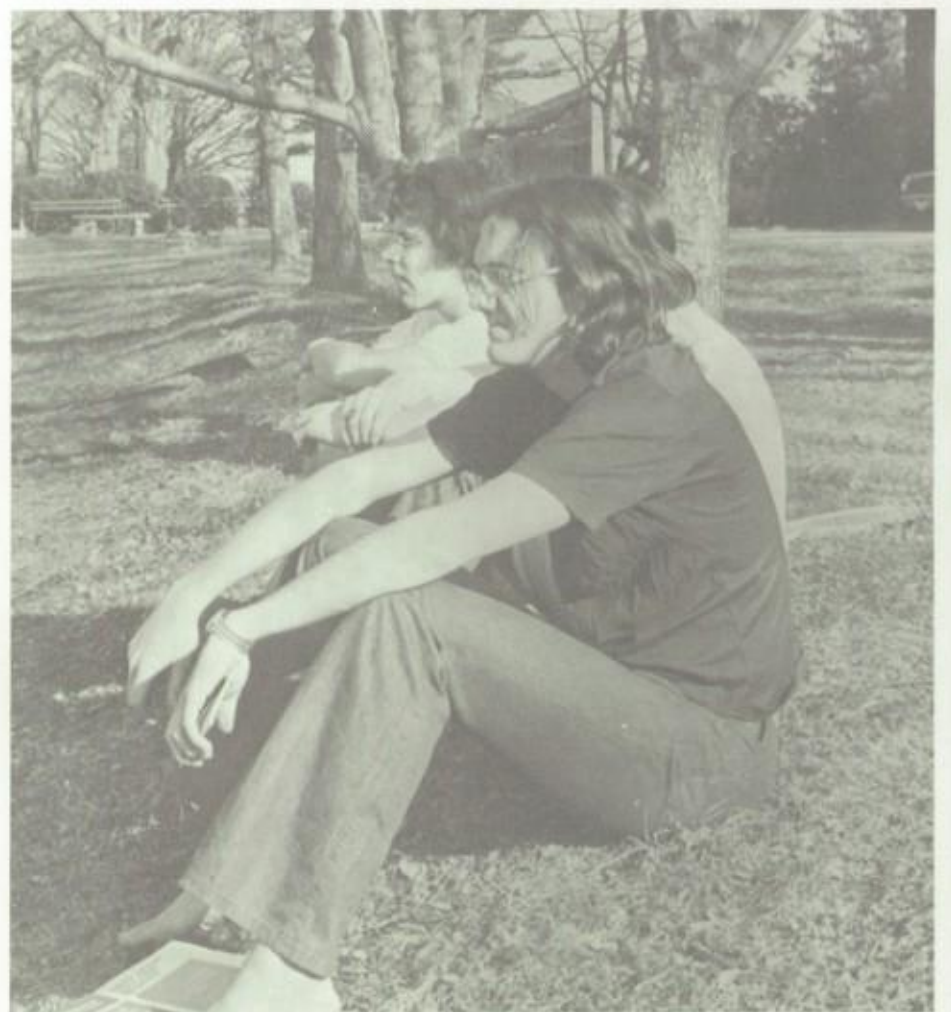

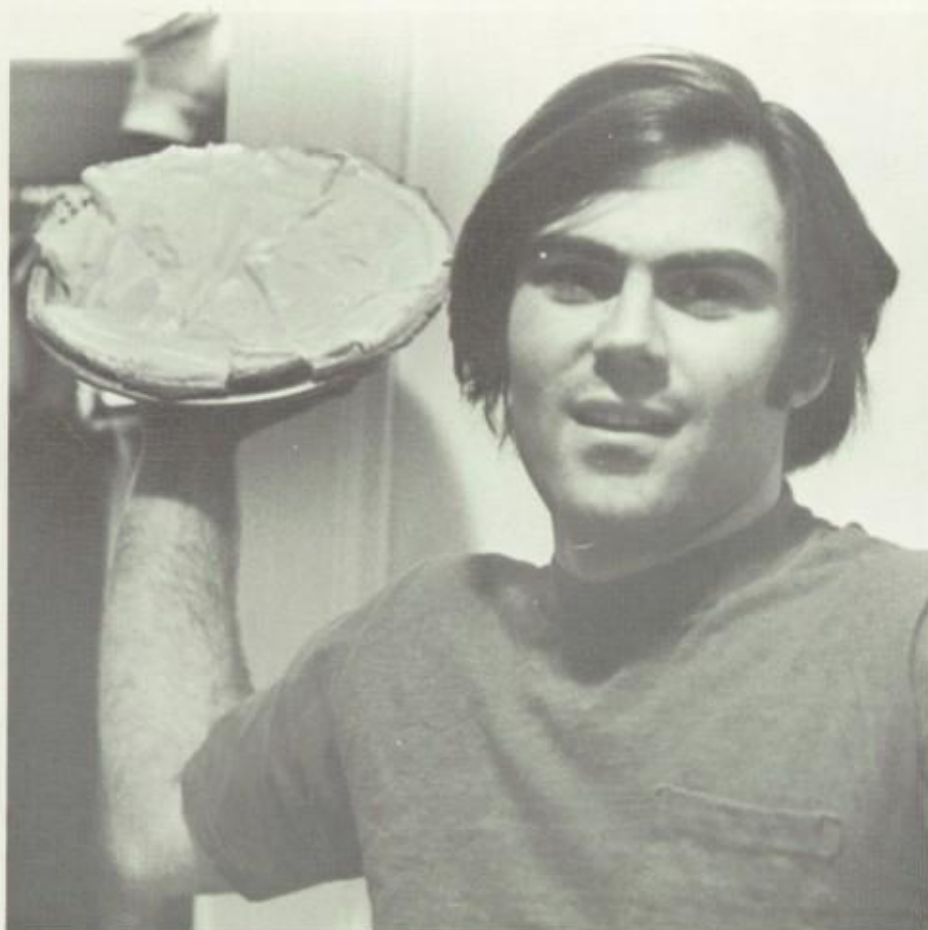

Athletic supporter, Bron Childress, displays his beauties.

A dangerous combination — Charlie Parsons and a water balloon.

John Barron and Joe Rickards look on with disgust as the Red Bandana Gang emerges from the back of the green shed.

Clarke Crenshaw aims ...

... and fires at John Barron.

Sorry!
This is the best reception
you can get underground.

Big Mac pedals to the Paramount.

John Harman and Rocco DiSanto, not to be outdone by the Apollo lunar landings, construct a moon rocket of their own. See page 140 for results.

At the risk of being carried away by the cockroaches, Jim Kluttz and Lee Carr sit in the bathroom and shoot the bull.

Woody Warren and date seem to be at loose ends amid the excitement of an afternoon at V.E.S.

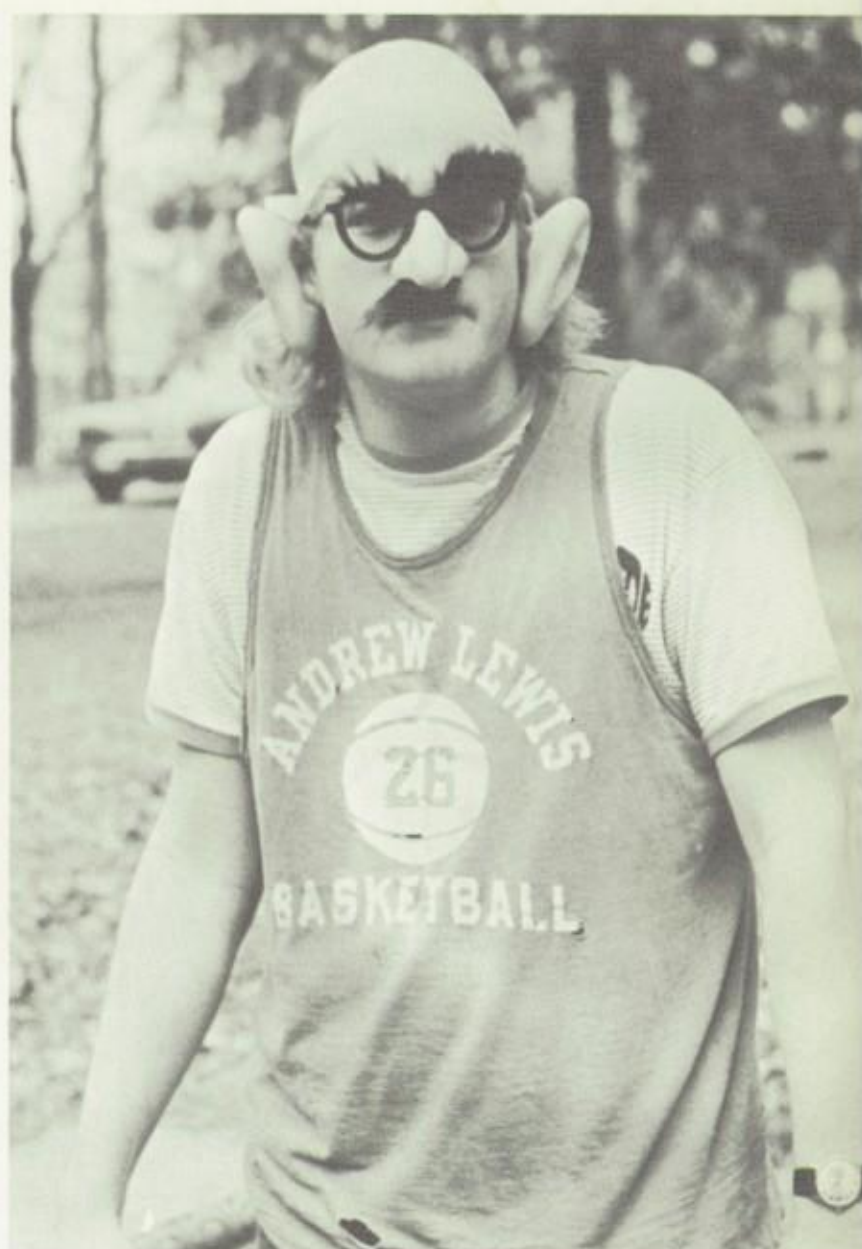

"Now I don't mean to be pushy, son, but ya gotta git a haircut to live on my dorm," explains counselor Mike Basnight to Jim Green.

An all time first! Jim Manly gives the peace sign! Or could that mean victory? (We'll go with victory.)

This is a familiar sight as some segment of the V.E.S. community hits the road.

It's a pretty good disguise but the Andrew Lewis jersey blows it. We know it's Richie Pence.

Spencer Morten, Rob Roberts, Alfred Motsinger, and Rocco Di-Santo hold an informal jam in the senior lounge.

Seniors

The senior year at a school is the conclusion. It draws to an end everything associated with high school. But as a conclusion it constitutes a beginning, a birth into a new and extremely different life. As the last year of high school wanes the students in the senior class look toward this birth. In their anticipation they often forget their school. High school is overshadowed by a looking forward toward the long awaited college experience.

As they look back in later years the students will remember high school and see it as a growing up and maturing process. Among those years of school the senior year will be remembered as the foremost.
